SIMMONS COLLEGE

SIMMONS COLLEGE in Boston is a college for women which combines liberal education with vocational preparation. The will of its founder, John Simmons, directed that the College should give instruction in "art, science, and industry best calculated to enable the scholars to acquire an independent livelihood". In pursuance of that trust the Corporation was organized in 1899, and the College was opened for instruction in 1902. Simmons College was the first college for young women in this country to recognize the necessity for professional instruction combined with a liberal and cultural education. Simmons College is on the approved list of the Association of American Universities.

The program of the first-year class is planned in terms of the student's previous education and her probable vocational interest. Beginning in the second year, the courses of study are arranged in various programs with reference to the particular occupation for which the student is preparing. With the professional subjects essential to each program are associated appropriate cultural studies in proportions designed to give a well-balanced education.

The plan of instruction provides complete programs of three or four years, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science, for students who have completed the work of the first-year class. It also affords one-year or two-year professional programs, leading to the baccalaureate degree or the master's degree, for those who have had collegiate education elsewhere. Under special conditions mature students may be received for instruction in subjects amounting to less than a complete program. Summer courses are offered in the School of Nursing to suitably prepared applicants.

The programs, described on the pages listed, indicate the grouping of the subjects studied in the various schools. Programs leading to a degree may not be varied except by permission of the Faculty. In cases where an unrestricted elective is indicated, it may be any subject for which the student has the prerequisites.

In 1938-39 the registration was as follows: first-year students, 262; Preprofessional Studies, 67; English, 89; Library Science, 143; Social Work, 125; Business and Secretarial Studies, 267; Store Service Education, 50; General Science, 73; Home Economics, 180; Nursing, 329; Physical Education, 12; total, 1,597. Among these students were 200 graduates of other colleges. In addition to the students present during the regular session, there were 137 in the summer session of 1938, making a total of 1,734 students who registered for courses at Simmons College in 1938-39. Bermuda, Brazil, Canada, Canal Zone, China, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Germany, Hawaii, India, Palestine, Philippine Islands, and Puerto Rico, and forty-one of the United States were represented.

CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION

THE College seeks to admit students of high intelligence and social maturity who will profit most by the college experience. All available information about each candidate is given careful consideration by the Committee on Admission.

Application for admission to Simmons College is made on the form furnished by the Registrar of the College. This must be accompanied by the required fee of ten dollars which is deducted from the first tuition payment, but is not returned if the application is withdrawn, or if the applicant is not able to meet the entrance requirements. Every candidate for admission must meet the entrance requirements described in this bulletin, including a certificate of honorable dismissal from the principal of the institution last attended, and also a satisfactory certificate of health. Every candidate is urged to visit the College if possible, and a personal interview with an officer of the College or an alumna is arranged for each applicant. There are three plans of admission to the first-year class, described beginning on pages 33, 35, and 36.

Applicants for the first-year class are encouraged to apply for admission at the end of the eleventh grade in order that the College may render an early decision with regard to the probability of admission after the completion of the preparatory work. If the record gives satisfactory evidence that the applicant has consistently maintained a high standard of achievement and possesses other required qualifications, she may be tentatively accepted for admission in the September following the completion of her secondary school course, her final acceptance to be contingent upon the presentation of a satisfactory final record.

The total number of students that can be admitted to the first-year class is governed by the limited enrollment necessary in certain of the professional programs beginning in the second year.

ADMISSION TO THE FIRST-YEAR CLASS REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL CANDIDATES

There are certain credentials, in addition to the regular application form, required of all applicants for admission to the first-year class regardless of the plan by which the candidates apply. These are as follows:

School Record. A certified transcript of the applicant's record, submitted by the principal of the secondary school last attended. The complete record should cover the period from grades nine to twelve, and in cases where the candidate has attended more than one school, a transcript of her record from each school is required. The record should include: the studies taken in each grade, the final marks gained in each study, the candidate's rank in the graduating class, and any other data which the school makes a matter of permanent record, and which will assist the College in its judgment of the applicant's fitness. Schools which use the Cumulative Record Form prepared by the American Council on Education should submit a photostatic copy of the candidate's entire record.

Principal's Recommendation. A confidential report from the principal of the secondary school last attended, on the personal qualifications of the applicant and her general fitness to pursue successfully a suitable curriculum at Simmons College.

Scholastic Aptitude Test. The official report of the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board. The candidate is held responsible for making application to the Board at 431 West 117th Street, New York, N. Y. This test is held at various centers in April and in June. Plan I candidates are urged to take the April test in order that the College may render an early decision as to their acceptance. Those who plan to take subject examinations also, or who are unable to be examined in April, are expected to take the June test. For late applicants the test is offered by the College in September, with the usual fee of $10.

Health Certificate. A form provided by the College in March. Good health is important and any handicap should be mentioned on the health certificate.

Personal Interview. An interview with each applicant, preferably conducted at the College, but sometimes arranged with an alumna or some other qualified person for candidates living at a distance.

Photograph. A recent photograph of approximately passport size.

PLAN I

In addition to the credentials listed on page 32, candidates for admission to the first-year class by Plan I are required to present evidence of satisfactory preparation in certain subjects named below and defined by the College Entrance Examination Board. This evidence may be presented by certificate from approved schools, by examination or by certificate in a part of the subjects and by examination in the remainder, as explained below. Preparation must amount to 15 units, distributed among the following subjects:

Prescribed subjects:	units
English	4 or 3*
Foreign language	3 or 4†
History	1‡
Algebra	1
Geometry	1

Elective subjects to complete 15 units:

Foreign language
Mathematics
Specific sciences
Technical or general subjects‡ (not more than 4 units)

* If offered by examination, 3 units only are allowed.

† Two units of each of two foreign languages may be offered in place of 3 units of one foreign language.

‡ The College is glad to furnish information concerning subjects which are acceptable for entrance but are not described by the College Board. General History, World History, and half units of History, and General Science may be offered only as general subjects.

A unit represents a year's study in any subject in a secondary school constituting approximately a quarter of a full year's work. Not less than one-half a unit earned in one year is accepted in any subject.

Subjects not included in the examination lists of Simmons College may be offered only by certificate.

Certificate. Under Plan I, the College receives as partial evidence of fitness for admission a certificate from the headmaster or principal of an approved school in which the candidate has spent at least the fourth year of her preparation. The certificate privilege is granted to all schools on approved regional lists. The certificate must be submitted on the form furnished by the College.

The work should be distributed over the last four years of secondary school. The work of the last year in a junior high school may be accepted in place of that of the first year of a four-year high school course. The certificate must show the entire record of the candidate and give evidence that she has completed, to the extent and in the manner described in the bulletin of the College Entrance Examination Board, the subjects in which she is recommended for admission without examination. If the candidate has attended more than one school, a transcript of her record from each school is required.

Certificate and Examination. If a candidate's certificate does not cover enough subjects to meet in full the requirements for admission, she may offer subjects by examination to complete the requirements.

The subject examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board are accepted for admission to Simmons College. They are held in Boston and at many other places throughout the country beginning the Saturday before the third Monday in June. A list of examination centers is published about March 1. Requests that the examinations be held at particular points, to receive proper consideration, should be transmitted to the Secretary of the Board not later than February.

All applications for these examinations must be addressed to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board, 431 West 117th Street, New York, N. Y., and must be made upon a blank form to be obtained from the Secretary of the Board.

The College allows credit for Regents examinations passed with a mark of seventy-five or over in the standard college preparatory subjects.

Certain entrance examinations are held at the College in September. Applications for these should reach the Recorder not later than August 1.

PLAN II

Plan II provides a means by which a promising student may enter Simmons College when her record of work in the secondary school does not conform to the requirements for admission as stated under Plan I. It is also suggested for students who have attended schools which are not included on the approved regional lists and for students who wish to be judged upon the results of four subject examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board. Under Plan II the College makes no stipulation of subjects which must be taken in the secondary school, nor does it specify what grade of accomplishment must be achieved by the applicant. It provides a flexibility in the relationship of the secondary school and the College which is mutually beneficial.

In addition to the credentials listed on page 32, candidates for admission by Plan II are required to take the examination in English administered by the College Entrance Examination Board.* They are also required to present evidence of the satisfactory completion of a secondary-school course. Confidential reports on the personal qualifications of the applicant are sought from several responsible persons who have known the applicant in her school or community.

* Applicants whose decision to apply for admission to Simmons College is made too late to take the College Board examination in June are required to take a similar examination at the College prior to its opening in September.

No application for admission by Plan II is accepted after August 15 of the year in which admission is sought.

PLAN III

In the case of specially recommended candidates, adequately maintained cumulative records may, at the discretion of the admissions committee, be accepted in lieu of the requirements of Plan I or Plan II. To be considered for this purpose such records must (a) cover at least the three most recent years of the candidate's school life, (b) provide information concerning the candidate's intellectual capacity, physical and mental health, personal characteristics, habits, attitudes, interests, and talents, (c) contain a complete summary of the applicant's official record of final school grades and of the results of any examinations taken under the auspices of a competent examining agency, (d) include the accurate record of the results of comparable (objective) measures of intellectual capacity and of achievement in all important subjects studied.

Students in the special experimental group of the schools of the Progressive Education Association regularly apply for admission by Plan III.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Applicants who have completed satisfactorily one year or more in other approved colleges or junior colleges, or are graduates of approved normal schools, may be admitted to advanced standing without examination as candidates for the bachelor's degree, provided they can establish their fitness for the professional work of the programs which they wish to enter.

Credit is usually allowed for academic subjects which are substantially equal to those offered in the program selected at Simmons College, and in which the student has obtained sufficiently high marks. Credit for technical work is not promised in advance.

A statement of honorable dismissal must accompany the record from a junior or senior college. A definite recommendation is required for each junior college student from the president or dean of the institution. Simmons College also arranges for a personal interview with each student, to be conducted by an officer of the College or some other authorized person. A conference at the College is desirable. A recent photograph, of about passport size, should be submitted with the application.

Applicants who have completed only one year in approved normal schools are not granted advanced standing. They are required to present evidence of having satisfactorily completed preparation which is equivalent to a four-year high school course and includes the requirements for admission to Simmons College in English, foreign language, mathematics, and history.

ADMISSION TO THE GRADUATE DIVISION

The graduate division includes all students who have received the baccalaureate degree from a college whose work is accepted by Simmons College. They are divided into two groups: those students who are enrolled in the programs leading to the degree of Master of Science, and those enrolled in the programs leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science. Two of the programs offered by the College lead to the master's degree: the one-year program at the Prince School of Store Service Education, and the two-year program at the School of Social Work. One- and two-year programs leading to the baccalaureate degree are also available in most of the Schools for properly qualified graduates of accredited colleges. These programs are composed of intensive technical work in essentially undergraduate subjects.

PROGRAM FOR THE FIRST-YEAR CLASS

THE program for the first-year class is designed to assist the student in her transition from secondary school to college, to enable her to broaden and deepen her intellectual interests, to guide her toward a wise selection of a professional objective, and to help her to plan the work of her subsequent years in the College.

Under the guidance of a faculty adviser, the student selects her courses with reference to her previous education and her object in entering Simmons College. The flexibility in this program permits the student whose aims are well defined to carry forward her plans, and at the same time enables the student whose purposes are only vaguely formed to gain the understanding essential to intelligent planning. In her application for admission to the first-year class the student is asked to indicate her probable choice of a School. This choice is regarded as tentative until confirmed or modified at the close of the first year. The programs of the second and subsequent years are arranged so far as possible to permit changes in professional objective during the first year without imposing any additional burden on the student.

During the week of registration, first-year students take certain aptitude and placement tests, the results of which, together with the school record and other pertinent facts, are available to the adviser in assisting the student to plan her work. A normal year's program for a first-year student consists of four courses in addition to the required work in professional orientation and physical education. The final selection of courses must be submitted to the student's adviser for approval. The first-year program is selected from the following courses and is ordinarily limited to not more than two courses from any one of the groups:

Required	{ College Opportunities Physical Education
Group A: Language and Literature	{ English (required) * French † German † Spanish †
Group B: Social Studies	{ Social Studies, or History (advanced course) ‡ Science (survey course)
Group C: Science	{ Biology Chemistry Physics Mathematics

During the course of her first year, the student receives guidance in the selection of the professional program which she will pursue beginning in her second year. This guidance is provided partly through the course in College Opportunities and partly through conferences with her adviser and the Director of the School in which she plans to enroll.

As a result of her experiences in the first-year class, the student should be ready to enter the School of her choice. These are planned so as to include the necessary fundamental and professional studies and at the same time permit the student some freedom to pursue her developed intellectual interests. Beginning in her second year in the College, the student is governed by the requirements of the professional program which she elects and is guided by the Director of the School in which she is enrolled. Her first-year faculty adviser continues to give friendly counsel when the occasion arises.

* English is normally required of all students. Those who indicate exceptional proficiency on the placement test are assigned to a more advanced course.

† Assignment to the appropriate modern language course is influenced by the results of placement tests.

‡ Advanced history courses are available to students whose secondary-school work has included at least three courses in history, and whose marks were superior.

SCHOOL OF PREPROFESSIONAL STUDIES

THE School of Preprofessional Studies offers programs for students who plan to pursue a course of professional study in a college, university, or professional school which either requires or strongly recommends for admission a college course of four years leading to a baccalaureate degree. Simmons College is especially fitted to direct the student wisely during the period of preliminary education by virtue of an accumulated experience in the field of professional preparation and through the intimate contact which has been maintained with certain fields of professional work.

These programs are not only justified by the enlarged vision and mental maturity with which the students enter upon their specialized study, but are being increasingly demanded in the professional fields whose policies have broad social effects on the general welfare in modern society.

Four programs are offered, all leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science. They refer to the following professions: library service, social work, store service education, and fields allied to medical science. The required courses of the second, third, and fourth years have been selected with reference to the ultimate goal, and in all cases wherein it is possible, the planned sequence of courses should be followed. Electives should be chosen in the spirit of a broad, cultural foundation. The Director of the School is guided by the counsel of the Directors of the professional schools in Simmons College in advising the student.

Since the professional schools in Simmons College and elsewhere exercise autonomous control over the selection of students to be admitted, the completion of a program in the School of Preprofessional Studies carries no assurance of admission to a course of graduate professional study.

I. FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM IN PREPARATION FOR LIBRARY SCHOOLS *

This program is planned for students who expect to enter a school of library science to pursue a program for which college graduation is a requirement for admission.

FIRST YEAR

Students are advised to include French or German†, and Social Studies 1 in their programs for the first year. The arrangement of the first-year program for all Schools is described on pages 38, 39.

II. FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM IN PREPARATION FOR SCHOOLS OF SOCIAL WORK *

This program is designed primarily for students who wish to prepare themselves for admission to graduate professional schools of social work, but it is also suitable for those who plan to enter other graduate schools requiring a broad foundation in social studies. The American Association of Schools of Social Work especially recommends a broad cultural education, professional interest, and the type of personality which promises success in developing helpful social relationships. Its recommendations regarding preprofessional courses have been incorporated into this program.

* For a detailed explanation of courses mentioned in the following program, see pages 96 ff.
† For language requirements in the School of Library Science see pages 47 ff.

‡ Electives must include a minimum of twelve year-hours in one subject field within the last three years, and are chosen under the guidance of the Director of the School.

§ Students may enroll in Secretarial Studies B in the second, third, or fourth year in addition to their regular programs.

FIRST YEAR

Students are advised to include Social Studies 1 in their programs for the first year. The arrangement of the first-year program for all Schools is described on pages 38, 39.

‡ For a detailed explanation of courses mentioned in the following program, see pages 96 ff.

IV. FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM IN PREPARATION FOR MEDICAL, DENTAL OR NURSING SCHOOLS*

This program is planned for students who expect to enter a medical, dental, or nursing school after graduation, or who plan to pursue any other specialized professional course related to the medical field.

FIRST YEAR

Students are advised to include Chemistry 1 and Mathematics 1 in their programs for the first year. The arrangement of the first-year program for all Schools is described on pages 38, 39.

SCHOOL OF ENGLISH

THE School of English offers programs for students who wish to fill positions in editorial or publishing offices, or to write; and for students who wish to teach English in high or other secondary schools, or to undertake graduate work in English. Programs are arranged for students who have satisfactorily completed one or more years at other accredited colleges, provided their study has included certain specified subjects. All programs lead to the degree of Bachelor of Science.

I. FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM *

The four-year program includes courses of the usual type which are taught in liberal arts colleges and which furnish the broad foundation, information, and practice that are essential for satisfactory professional work. At the beginning of the third year, students enter either group I or group II, specializing in English literature and composition and taking certain technical courses of vocational value. Those students who wish to seek positions in editorial or publishing offices or certain semi-literary positions in commercial houses enter group I. They should, upon graduation, have a knowledge of several of the following subjects, which may be included in this program: advanced or specialized composition; proof reading, editing, preparation of copy, and forwarding of copy through the press; library usage and research; stenography and typewriting; elementary journalism; advertising; and translating.

Students who are interested primarily in creative writing, and not in editing or office work, may specialize in composition and literature. Group II is intended chiefly for students who wish to teach English in high schools or other secondary schools. Effective with the first-year class entering the College in September, 1938, group II of this program is withdrawn. It continues to be available, however, for students who are able to complete its requirements prior to June, 1941.

Thereafter students who desire to prepare themselves for teaching English are advised to enter group I, the writing and editing program of the School of English, or the School of Pre-professional Studies, with the intention of taking a graduate year in education at another college. The preparation for writing and editing may be of real service to a secondary-school teacher because of current emphasis in schools upon student publications.

PROGRAMS FOR COLLEGE GRADUATES

The degree of Bachelor of Science is granted to graduates of other colleges who have satisfactorily completed a program approved by the Faculty of Simmons College.

Two years are usually required, but in some cases it is possible to arrange a program which permits graduation at the end of one year. The Director of the School is glad to correspond with students who contemplate entering Simmons College with advanced standing, and to advise them concerning preliminary courses which will articulate with the requirements here for the degree. At least one year at the College is required.

SCHOOL OF LIBRARY SCIENCE

THE School of Library Science offers programs designed to give to students the special equipment needed for successful careers as librarians. Alert students of intellectual ability with a liking for both books and people should find here a satisfying professional experience. Librarianship involves work with books on all subjects, and with people of all ages and degrees of education. This requires understanding of the significance of the library in modern society, and ability to judge books in terms of their interest to the individuals who use them. A librarian is expected to have either broad acquaintance with the literature of many branches of knowledge, or special familiarity with one branch; hence, a liberal education is an essential foundation for the study of library science.

Recommended preliminary studies. A subject major in any field has possible application in library service. Some undergraduate study in English literature is part of the essential preparation for librarianship, and an intimate knowledge of this field is useful in many library positions. However, the existence of numerous special libraries and of special collections in general libraries, offers unusual opportunities for students who have specialized in subjects which lie within the fields of the social sciences, the physical and biological sciences, and the fine arts.

For further suggestions, students entering the School as seniors or college graduates should refer to the academic studies outlined for the first three years of the four-year program.

Language requirements. It is desirable that Latin be one of the languages offered for entrance as a knowledge of it is important, especially in the study of bibliography.

Two years each of college French and German are strongly advised as a minimum, and any additional language is an asset. The students who give adequate attention to languages during the first three or four years of study have a much wider range of choice in the professional options. Those students who look forward to work in college libraries, to order work, reference work or cataloguing and classification in large public, reference or university libraries should be able to read both French and German freely, and every additional language is of value.

Age limit. An age limit of thirty-five years is imposed except in unusual circumstances.

Instruction. The methods of instruction and the general plan and content of the library science curriculum are directed toward two objectives. Every student is given an introduction to the principles and practices in library science. Beyond this, opportunity is given students with special interests and abilities to begin specialization for particular fields of library work through optional programs in the second half-year. These fields are cataloguing and classification, library service to boys and girls, library service to adult readers, and library service in special libraries.

The one-year curriculum in library science may be completed in either one of two programs, in the four-year program in which library science is studied in the senior year, or in a one-year program for college graduates. The latter program offers a wider variety of professional opportunity than the former, as two of the optional programs are open only to college graduates. Admission to the optional programs in the second half-year is subject to the permission of the Director and depends upon the scholarship, personality, and general maturity of the student.

Graduates of other Schools of Simmons College are admitted to the one-year program on the same basis as graduates of other colleges. Undergraduates who plan to enter this program should complete the work for the degree of Bachelor of Science in the School of Preprofessional Studies.

Degrees and certificates. The four-year program leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science, and the one-year program for college graduates leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science, or the Certificate in Library Science. The certificate is conferred upon those students who have already received a degree from Simmons College, and upon occasional students admitted to special standing.

Field work. Formal field work in libraries of recognized standing is required for all students for a two-week period during the second half-year. The School is indebted to the numerous libraries which have generously consented to receive student field workers. The student's budget must provide for two weeks' maintenance during the field work, for the value of this experience depends upon the library in which it is obtained and the assignment should be made to suit the student's professional needs, not with reference to the distance from Boston.*

Each student is strongly advised to spend at least two weeks at work in a public library during the summer preceding the year of professional studies. The School offers every assistance to students in making arrangements with libraries for this work, which gives a better understanding of the professional curriculum.

Visits to libraries, binderies, bookstores, publishing houses, museums, exhibits, and professional meetings afford a field for observation for which metropolitan Boston offers unusual opportunities.

I. FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM †

The four-year program includes three years of academic studies followed by a one-year professional curriculum and leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science.

Students are advised to include French or German, and Social Studies 1 in their programs for the first year. The arrangement of the first-year program for all Schools is described on pages 38, 39.

They may continue the general curriculum, or apply for admission to the optional program in cataloguing and classification, or that in library service to boys and girls, described on pages 51 ff.

II. ONE-YEAR PROGRAM IN LIBRARY SCIENCE FOR COLLEGE GRADUATES

The one-year program for college graduates is devoted to professional studies and offers a wider variety of professional opportunity than the fourth year of the four-year program. In the second half-year students in this program may continue the general curriculum or apply for admission to any one of the four optional programs: that in cataloguing and classification, in library service to boys and girls, in library service to adult readers, or in library service in special libraries.

* Any changes in the courses listed, which may seem advisable because of the varying objectives of the students, are subject to the approval of the Director.

2. Library Service to Boys and Girls. For students wishing to prepare for reading guidance of children and adolescents in public libraries or in schools. Attention is given to reading interests, habits, and abilities of boys and girls, and to problems of organization and administration of children's departments in public libraries; or of young people's and school departments in public libraries, and of school libraries. Prerequisites include evidence of effective work with children and young people.

* Secretarial Studies B or the equivalent must be completed before graduation.

Library Science 3a or 3b	Library Science 13b

3. Library Service to Adult Readers. For students interested in working with adult readers this course provides an introduction to readers' advisory service and adult education in and through libraries. Emphasis is placed upon the reading interests, habits, and abilities of adults, and the objectives, agencies, and methods of adult education. Prerequisites include college graduation and evidence of personality and scholarship for effective leadership in the field.

Library Science 2	Library Science 10
Library Science 8	Electives (2 yr. hrs.)

4. Library Service in Special Libraries. Preparation for service in special libraries, broadly conceived. Attention is directed chiefly to reference methods and methods of specializing in the literature of particular subject fields, and to problems of organization of printed materials in relation to the needs of special clientele. The program is individualized to permit specialization for library service in different types of special libraries, and in those public, college, and university libraries where specialized reference workers are required. Prerequisites include college graduation with a major in a single subject, such as biology, chemistry, economics, fine arts, or history, and knowledge of foreign languages varying with the student's field of interest.

Library Science 4	Library Science 13b

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

THE School of Social Work prepares students for professional service in social case work, group work and social research as carried on in public and private agencies. The work of the school is given in six fields: children's work, community organization, family welfare, medical social work, psychiatric social work, and social research. The programs are planned to give practice in the fundamental techniques of social work and in the adaptation to social work of certain other fields, such as medicine, law, psychiatry, and economics. Field experience under the supervision of the School is arranged for all students.

For students who hold the degree of Bachelor of Science from Simmons College, or its equivalent from some other accredited college, the School offers a one-year, basic course in the theory and practice of social work. Candidates for the degree of Master of Science must spend a second year of professional work specializing in one particular field of interest, in addition to the first year basic course.

Undergraduates of Simmons College who plan to enter this program are advised to complete the work for the degree of Bachelor of Science in the School of Preprofessional Studies. Graduates of Simmons College are considered for admission on the same basis as graduates of other colleges.

Men as well as women are admitted to the professional courses of the School of Social Work, but men are not eligible for the degree.

A special bulletin giving more detailed information may be obtained by writing to the Director of the School at 18 Somerset Street, Boston.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND SECRETARIAL STUDIES

THE programs in the School of Business and Secretarial Studies combine academic and cultural subjects, such as English, foreign languages, science, history, economics, and psychology, with such technical and vocational subjects as shorthand, typewriting, accounting, business law, business organization, office management, advertising, marketing, personnel, and finance. Experience has shown that a well-rounded academic education is of considerable advantage in business; and therefore it is insisted in all programs of the School that such an education must precede or accompany the purely technical instruction.

The fundamental idea of the school is to prepare women for business. Except for those few specializing in accounting, all students are thoroughly prepared in shorthand and typewriting and are given the broad background required of present-day secretaries. It is the policy of the School to instruct its students so that they may be able to progress into executive and administrative work in large organizations. Increasing emphasis is being placed on the problems of management both in small and large businesses. Graduates of the school are now maintaining their own stenographic bureaus, specialty shops, and advertising agencies.

A four-year program has been arranged for applicants who can meet the entrance requirements of the College. A one-year program is offered for graduates of other approved colleges.

In both programs a limited amount of practice under actual business conditions has been arranged with a number of prominent business firms in Boston, and at the Women's Educational and Industrial Union, where members of the senior class work for one day each week during a portion of the year.

I. FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM*

The undergraduate program leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science requires four years.

In addition to the regular secretarial program a student who wishes a concentration in certain non-secretarial fields such as accounting, personnel, finance, or other specialization may plan a program in conference with the Director.

A student who wishes to prepare herself for a specialized position such as accountant, medical secretary, record secretary in a hospital, secretary in a law office, shorthand reporter, or teacher should elect from the courses given below in addition to the secretarial subjects.

Accountant or income tax specialist: Economics 3 and 5, Business 3, 4, 5, and 7.

Medical secretary or record secretary: Chemistry 2, Biology 1 and 4, Secretarial Studies 5, German 3 or 4, Advanced French.

Secretary in law office or shorthand reporter: Secretarial Studies 6, Business 7.

Teacher: Psychology 1b, 3 and 5, Education 1, Business Education 1 and 2, Business 7, 8, 9, 12, and 13.

II. ONE-YEAR PROGRAM FOR COLLEGE GRADUATES

This program in business and secretarial subjects is open to graduates of approved colleges provided their collegiate education has been chiefly academic. It is also open to those students who have completed at least three years in an approved college including the equivalent of the academic studies prescribed in the regular four-year program.

Candidates who satisfactorily complete this program are eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Science.

Approved electives may be substituted for required subjects already completed satisfactorily.

College graduates with special objectives may plan a program in conference with the Director.

* Students attaining a mark of A or B in the first half-year of this course substitute Business 20 or an approved elective for the second half-year.

PRINCE SCHOOL OF STORE SERVICE EDUCATION

THE one-year course offered by the Prince School prepares students for executive positions in retail stores. Owing to the many-sided nature of store work, the scope of placement possibilities in this field is exceptionally broad. Positions held by graduates represent such phases of store administration as personnel management, buying, sales and fashion promotion, research, and office management.

For effective leadership in retailing, a well-rounded conception of the interrelation of store functions is essential. To this end basic instruction is given in the functions of management, merchandising, publicity, and control.

To keep the course in line with changing points of view and new developments in store administration, the curriculum undergoes frequent revision. Current legislation affecting retailing is discussed. Special attention is given to laws concerned with labor, with price-maintenance or price-fixing, with the extension of distributive education, and with the protection of consumer interests. The consumer movement also is given due consideration as is the ever-increasing importance of fashion.

To insure a practical approach to all subject matter, a considerable part of the course consists of field work undertaken in department or specialty stores. Although guided observation forms part of this activity, much of it is actual participation in the regular work of an establishment. Some of the assignments are in stores outside of Boston.

Another vital contact with retailing is furnished by a group of sales-people sent to the school by coöperating stores in Boston. These representative store employees provide a class for practice teaching and for demonstration of methods used in salesmanship training.

Admission. Graduation from an accredited college is one of the primary qualifications for admission to the Prince School. Undergraduates in Simmons College who wish to prepare for entrance to the Prince School are advised to enroll in the School of Preprofessional Studies, or in the School of Home Economics. Graduates of the various programs of Simmons College are considered for admission on the same basis as graduates of other colleges.

A student with a baccalaureate degree from any accredited college may be admitted irrespective of the line of specialization. Subjects recommended for undergraduate study are psychology, economics, marketing, accounting, statistics, education, textiles, and color, line, and design.

At least a month of selling experience in a department store is a prerequisite to entrance.

The school has a limited enrollment. Factors considered in selecting students are scholarship, personality, health, and appearance.

Degrees. The degree of Master of Science is granted to graduates of approved colleges who pass a qualifying examination after entrance into the Prince School, who maintain a grade of A or B in each course, and who prepare a thesis while carrying the required program. A student who holds a baccalaureate degree from some other approved college, but who does not become a candidate for the degree of Master of Science, is eligible upon satisfactory completion of the course at the Prince School to receive the degree of Bachelor of Science from Simmons College.

General Information. Students are admitted for the full course only. This covers an academic year beginning in September and ending in June. No correspondence, evening, summer, or special courses are offered.

A catalogue giving more detailed information may be obtained by writing to the Director, Prince School of Store Service Education, 19 Allston Street, Beacon Hill, Boston.

SCHOOL OF GENERAL SCIENCE

I. FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM *

The program in General Science leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science is designed for students who wish to become assistants in the laboratories of hospitals, of city and state departments of health, of private physicians, or of industrial organizations; assistants in chemistry, physics, or biology to persons engaged in medical or other scientific research; or teachers of chemistry, biology, physics, or mathematics.

The studies prescribed for all students consist of one year of mathematics, two years of physics, and one year each of inorganic chemistry, of organic chemistry, and of biology. In the third and fourth years major emphasis may be placed upon chemistry, biology, physics, or mathematics. At least one-half of the work of these final two years must be in courses in science or mathematics more advanced than the prescribed courses.

II. ONE-YEAR PROGRAM IN PUBLIC HEALTH AND LABORATORY WORK FOR COLLEGE GRADUATES

Simmons College, by affiliation with the several laboratories of the State Department of Health, the Boston Dispensary and the Faulkner Hospital, offers an unusual opportunity to college graduates in practical education for laboratory positions that entail executive responsibilities. A one-year program is open to a limited number of graduates of approved colleges who have taken several courses in biology, including a year-course in bacteriology, and at least two year-courses in chemistry. Since the number of students who may be accepted in this course is limited, the best qualified applicants are selected by the College from among those who meet the admission requirements without regard to the order of application. Arrangements can usually be made for students to begin the work either in September or January.

The program offers two options; one emphasizes public health laboratory, the other hospital laboratory, technique and administration. One course at the College must be taken in addition to the work in the outside laboratories. A certificate is granted for the satisfactory completion of this program.

* In the third and fourth years the program should include the following courses:

- (a) For a student specializing in biology: Biology 6, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13; and Chemistry 5.
- (b) For a student specializing in chemistry: Chemistry 5, 9, 10, 11.
- (c) For a student specializing in physics: Physics 3, 4, 5.
- (d) For a student specializing in mathematics: Mathematics 2, 3.

THE courses offered by the School of Home Economics are designed for women who wish to teach; to administer an institution or household; to undertake such forms of social service as work in clinics with children; to lecture or to write on subjects related to home economics; or to study special problems in the field of home economics.

Teaching positions in this field are varied, including instruction in foods, clothing, and home making, in public, private, and vocational schools, normal schools and colleges. Certain types of community work conducted by family welfare and health organizations and by the Extension Service of the Department of Agriculture are open to home economics graduates. Administrative positions vary in responsibility, and include the management of school lunchrooms and employee cafeterias of business corporations, as well as the administration of such institutions as college dormitories and dining halls, orphan asylums, state, municipal, and privately endowed hospital nutrition departments, and private clubs.

The students in regular programs are required to take certain academic and scientific subjects as well as technical subjects, since a broad background is essential to success in the field of home economics. An opportunity for vocational practice in connection with certain of the College courses is provided in the College dormitories—one house containing rooms for twelve students is used as a home management practice house—in the lunchroom, and at the Women's Educational and Industrial Union. Students who are preparing to administer school lunchrooms, to be managers of institutions, or to engage in other business enterprises are allowed to supplement their College work by observation and practice in the shops and restaurants of the Union. Students who intend to teach have opportunities for observation and practice in the classes of the public schools and of the settlement houses. Students who wish to apply home economics in social service have an opportunity for field work under various Boston organizations.

I. FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM *

The four-year program leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science. While each student is required to take certain academic, scientific, and technical subjects which are considered essential to success in any branch of home economics, still a wide range of electives is permitted through which a student may specialize in the subjects of interest to her. These electives are taken chiefly in the senior year, but for students specializing in biology, chemistry, or clothing, an earlier choice is necessary in order to meet the prerequisites for advanced courses. Details as to the time when such decisions must be made are indicated in the following outline of courses.

PROGRAMS FOR COLLEGE GRADUATES

The degree of Bachelor of Science is granted to graduates of other colleges who have satisfactorily completed a program approved by the Faculty of Simmons College.

Two years are usually required, but in some cases it is possible to arrange a program which permits graduation at the end of one year. This can be done only when the previous college training of the student has included so many of the courses in science and professional subjects required in the four-year program, that the remaining technical requirements of that program may be practically completed in a single year.

The Director of the School is glad to correspond with students who contemplate entering Simmons College with advanced standing, and to advise them concerning preliminary courses which will articulate with the requirements here for the degree of Bachelor of Science. This plan may be of advantage in shortening the program or in making it possible to take advanced electives. At least one year at the College is required.

The professional opportunities open to students who complete these programs are similar to those described on page 61.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

THE School of Nursing offers several distinct types of programs. Program I is designed for students entering as college freshmen who wish to secure a general college education together with the professional training for nursing. The course requires five years, on the completion of which the student receives the degree of Bachelor of Science and the diploma in nursing, and is eligible for the state examinations for becoming a registered nurse.

The one-year programs (II and III) are offered to registered nurses who have graduated from approved schools of nursing and who desire special preparation for the fields of public health nursing or for head nurse and supervising positions in hospitals. Nurses completing either of these programs are granted certificates.* All nurses qualifying for admission to a certificate program must meet substantially the requirements for admission to the College, and present a satisfactory health record.

A three-year program (IV) is offered for registered nurses who are graduates of approved schools of nursing and who wish to qualify for the degree of Bachelor of Science.

Since the number of students who can be admitted to programs including field work is limited, preference is given to candidates who have superior professional or educational qualifications.

There is also offered a half-year program (V) in preparation for admission to hospital schools of nursing.

I. FIVE-YEAR PROGRAM †

Because of the demand for well educated women to take positions of responsibility, the nursing profession naturally

* To receive a certificate upon the completion of a year program a student must have a quality of 28 in the work of that year (see statement on pp. 76 and 77).

† For a detailed explanation of courses mentioned in the following programs, see pages 96 ff.

looks to such colleges as Simmons College to provide the kind of liberal and professional education needed by nurses for these positions. It is the purpose of the School of Nursing to provide in this program such a combination of college courses—both scientific and liberal—and professional preparation, that its graduates may be well equipped for positions requiring nurses of more than average ability and preparation. Such an arrangement is made possible through the coöperation of a group of Boston hospitals in whose schools of nursing our students receive their clinical instruction and related experience.

The first two and one-half years consist of courses given at Simmons College. There are two summer sessions of six weeks each following the first and second years. These summer sessions are conducted at the Massachusetts General and Peter Bent Brigham Hospitals, which have agreed to allow not only the use of their well equipped classrooms, but also an opportunity for the ward practice so necessary to supplement the general instruction in the principles and art of nursing. Because of assignments for hospital practice all undergraduate nursing students are expected to live in a College dormitory during the summer sessions unless exceptions to this rule are made in advance by the Director of the School.

Following the two and one-half years of college work, there are two full years of hospital experience in which the student receives the clinical instruction and practice which are required as a prerequisite for her nursing diploma. The hospital schools coöperating with the College in providing this experience are the schools of nursing at the Children's Hospital, the Massachusetts General, the Peter Bent Brigham, the Boston Lying-In, and McLean Hospitals. In general, the first year of hospital work includes experience in medical nursing, surgical nursing, operating-room technique and diet kitchen practices, with the allied theoretical instruction given in the schools to which the student is assigned.

The second year offers experience with the related instruction in pediatrics, obstetrics, and psychiatry.

The affiliation with the above hospital schools of nursing, all of which rank exceedingly high, makes it possible to develop an exceptionally broad nursing program. Their proximity to the College and the excellent coöperation of those in charge of these schools enable the College to organize a well integrated curriculum of study and practice.

On the completion of her hospital assignments, the student returns to the College for the remaining half-year of the course during which time she secures special preliminary preparation for the fields of nursing which are open to her upon graduation. This includes courses in education and a limited amount of experience in the field of public health nursing with the Community Health Association.

During the first two years there are about four weeks of vacation both before and after the summer sessions. During the remaining years the student has an average of four weeks of vacation each year.

There are several distinct advantages of this program over the usual program offered by most hospital schools. (1) It enables the recent high school graduate who is potential college material and who may be below the age required for admission to a hospital school of nursing to begin her professional preparation without delay. (2) It enables the student to secure both a college education and professional preparation in nursing in a shorter time than if she were to take the two courses independently of each other. (3) The college work given the student is so planned as to have a direct relation to nursing and the subjects studied in the hospitals. (4) The first year of the program is so arranged that if after her first summer session in the hospital the student should decide, or be advised, not to prepare for a nursing career, she can transfer to some other School in Simmons College, provided her work of the first year has been satisfactory and there is room in the School selected.

The basic expenses for the five years include: for each of three years at the college, $300 tuition plus $410 to $510 for residence if the student lives in the college dormitories; for each of two summers $50 tuition plus $60 for residence; and about $100 to cover uniforms and other expenses during the years at the hospitals.*

It is most desirable that every applicant should visit the College and arrange for a personal interview with the Director of the School of Nursing. Students must have passed their eighteenth birthday before the beginning of the second summer session.

FIRST YEAR

Students are advised to include Biology 1 and Chemistry 2 in their programs for the first year. The arrangement of the first-year program for all Schools is described on pages 38, 39.

All courses at the College, and all courses and practical experience at the hospitals, must be satisfactorily completed before the degree or the diploma may be awarded. During the assignment in the hospitals, the student is expected to abide by the rules and regulations of the hospital schools both as to her conduct in the nurses' homes and on the wards and in meeting the educational requirements of the school. If, at any time, her work, conduct, or health is not satisfactory, or she fails to develop those qualities judged to be essential in nursing, she may be asked to withdraw from the School of Nursing.

II. ONE-YEAR PROGRAM IN GENERAL PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

This program is open to registered nurses who are graduates of approved schools of nursing, and who can meet substantially the requirements for admission to Simmons College. It is intended to furnish a basic education in the fundamentals of public health nursing, with special emphasis upon family health work. The time required is a college year. The course is divided into two units: the first made up largely of supervised field experience and observation with a limited amount of class work at the College; and the second spent entirely in class instruction at the College. The first unit is designed to furnish the fundamental practice required in generalized public health nursing. The usual arrangement consists of approximately four months of supervised work in the districts of the Community Health Association, the Boston Health Department, and other local health agencies as they are able to provide it. Other opportunities for practice or observation in school nursing or rural nursing may be arranged for a limited number of qualified students. Students spend about thirty hours a week in field work, and in addition take Public Health Nursing 1 and Nutrition 4b.

Although the field work with its related courses of instruction is considered a prerequisite for the theoretical instruction of the second unit of the program, nurses who have already had satisfactory experience in well-organized public health nursing associations may be admitted directly to the second half of the program. It will be necessary, however, for such students to complete at a later date the required field work before receiving the certificate indicating the successful completion of the course.

Because both units of the course are offered in both the first and second half-years, the student may begin the course either in September or in January.

In case a student is so situated that she cannot take the two parts of the program consecutively as outlined above, she may take the field work beginning either in September or in January, and at some later date return for the half-year of theoretical instruction. It is most desirable, however, that a nurse delay registering for the course until she can plan to take all the work in one year. The program includes the following courses:

Nutrition 4b or 5	Public Health Nursing 1
Nursing Education 6	Public Health Nursing 2
Psychology 2	Public Health Nursing 3
Sociology 2	Public Health Nursing 4
Field Work 1	Public Health Nursing 6

III. ONE-YEAR PROGRAM IN HEAD NURSING

This program is open to registered nurses who are graduates of approved schools of nursing, and who can meet substantially the requirements for admission to Simmons College. It is designed for those who wish to prepare themselves for administrative work in hospitals and schools of nursing, especially for positions as head nurses and supervisors. The full program covers a college year, but qualified nurses may be admitted for any single course in nursing education. Those admitted to the course in ward teaching must first have completed the course in ward administration. Registration for these professional courses is limited to thirty students. Preference is given to those candidates whose records show a high standing and who have already had some experience in ward administration.

The work of the program includes theoretical courses, supervised field work and observation. Full time for two weeks in September before the opening of the college year and an average of twenty-four hours a week throughout the second half-year are devoted to practice under supervision in one of the hospitals affiliated with the College. This experience is supplemented by reports and conferences with the instructor. The program is as follows:

Biology (4 yr. hrs.)	Nursing Education 6
English (4 yr. hrs.)	or Sociology 2
Nursing Education 1	Psychology 2
Nursing Education 3	Field Work 2

IV. DEGREE PROGRAM FOR GRADUATE NURSES

A special program is offered for graduate nurses who desire to secure the degree of Bachelor of Science. This program is more flexible than the usual undergraduate program in order to adapt the choice of subject matter to the student's particular objective. Credit may be allowed for previous college work and professional training, subject to the approval of the College, but at least one full year's work must be at Simmons College. The usual amount of credit for an approved nursing course is from eight to sixteen year-hours (one-half to one year of college work), but may be supplemented by well organized post-graduate courses. Program II or III may be included in the allowance for elective work.*

A nurse applying for admission as a candidate for a degree must be a registered nurse, meet the entrance requirements of the College and have a recommendation from the principal of the school of nursing from which she was graduated as to her fitness to carry college work. She must meet the requirements for a degree both in the matter of total hours and in the evaluation of the quality of courses. The program is as follows:

* Work in certificate programs may be credited toward a degree only for those courses in which the student has a final mark of C or better.

English (4 yr. hrs.)	Social studies (8 yr. hrs.)
Science (8 yr. hrs.)	Electives (to complete re-
Psychology	quirements for the degree)
or Education (4 yr. hrs.)

V. HALF-YEAR PROGRAM IN PREPARATION FOR SCHOOLS OF NURSING

By an arrangement with the Children's Hospital and the New England Deaconess Hospital, students who are admitted to the schools of nursing in those institutions are received by the College for instruction in the scientific subjects necessary for their professional work. This program occupies one half-year, and is repeated the second half-year. Other students are admitted to it if the number received from the above hospitals is less than that for which provision has been made; such students must, however, meet the entrance requirements of the College. This program is as follows:

Biology A	Foods A
Biology B	Nutrition A
Chemistry A	Psychology A

SUMMER COURSES

Full information concerning summer courses for graduate nurses is contained in a bulletin which may be obtained from the Registrar of Simmons College.

SCHOOL OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

THE Bouv -Boston School of Physical Education is affiliated with Simmons College. Students of that school who have satisfied the entrance requirements of the College and have completed satisfactorily the first two years of a program approved by the Faculty of the College, may register during their third and fourth years. They are qualified for the degree upon the completion of sixteen year-hours in the following subjects during those years, in addition to the courses required by the Bouv -Boston School:

Economics	Philosophy
English Literature	Physiology
Fine Arts	Principles of Education
Nutrition	Public Health

This offers an excellent opportunity for students interested in physical education to fit themselves adequately for a field which is ever broadening in its scope. At the end of four years, they are able to enter the educational world not only equipped with the degree, and a sound educational background, but also prepared professionally to earn their living.

Requests for information or for the catalogue of the school should be addressed to the Registrar, Bouv -Boston School of Physical Education, 105 South Huntington Avenue, Boston.

DEGREES AND CERTIFICATES

THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

The degree of Bachelor of Science is conferred upon those students who have completed the following requirements:

1. All entrance requirements.
 2. All the prescribed subjects in some definite four-year or five-year program printed in the catalogue, or in some specific program approved by the Committee on Advanced Standing and Programs.
 3. At least 60 year hours.
 4. An evaluation of at least 112* in the quality of the courses.
 5. An evaluation of at least 28* in the courses of the fourth or final year.
 6. A similar standard of quality for all technical work.
- An applicant for the degree must do her final year of work at the College.

THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF SCIENCE

The conditions for obtaining the degree of Master of Science are as follows:

1. Every candidate for the degree of Master of Science must hold the degree of Bachelor of Science from Simmons College, or a baccalaureate degree from some other approved institution.
2. The candidate must fulfill the minimum requirements which would be necessary for the degree of Bachelor of Science in the particular school of Simmons College in which she is registered. If she is registered in a school in which there is no undergraduate technical program, she must offer such courses as may be prescribed as prerequisites to the graduate work of the school.

* See statement on pages 76 and 77.

3. The candidate must pursue her studies at the College for at least one year after receiving the baccalaureate degree.

The work must be the equivalent of 16 year-hours and must include one major and one minor subject. The work in the major subject must be three-fourths of a full year's work and must be more advanced than the work required for the baccalaureate degree. The work in the minor subject must be one-fourth of a full year's work and must be done in a department other than that in which the major work is done. A mark of A or B must be attained in all work accepted for the degree of Master of Science.

4. The subjects elected must be approved by the Faculty Committee on Graduate Students, and the courses must be approved by the heads of the departments in which they are taken.

CERTIFICATES

Certificates are granted in June to students who complete successfully the one-year programs in Library Science, in Store Service Education, in Public Health Nursing, in Head Nursing, and in Laboratory Work, and who receive a quality rating similar to that required for the baccalaureate degree.

ADMINISTRATION AND GOVERNMENT

ORGANIZATION OF THE COLLEGE

The immediate government of the College is intrusted by the Corporation to the College Faculty, which consists of the President, the Dean, the full-time professors of the various grades, and the full-time instructors and lecturers having had five years of experience in college teaching.

At the beginning of each year every student is required to register her proposed schedule of studies. After the first year, the Director of the School in which a student is pursuing her professional work has the immediate supervision of her progress and standing and must approve all changes in accepted schedules of studies.

All questions regarding the admission of students, and the credit to be given for courses completed at other institutions, are determined by the committees of the Faculty on admission and programs.

ATTENDANCE

Attendance is expected at all college exercises. Students must understand that if they are absent, for whatever reason, instructors are not obliged to grant requests for supplementary work. A student may be required to withdraw from a course in which her absences have been excessive.

COLLEGE EXERCISES

The college exercises occupy the hours between quarter of nine and ten minutes after four from Monday to Friday, inclusive. College appointments take precedence over any other engagements during these hours.

CONDUCT AND SCHOLARSHIP

A student is received only on the condition that her connection with the College may terminate whenever, in the judgment of the Faculty, she has failed to show sufficient industry, scholarship, or professional aptitude to justify her relation with the College. A student may be dismissed who does not meet the requirements of conduct and order, or whose behavior is inconsistent with the standards of the College.

WITHDRAWAL

A student who is obliged for any reason to withdraw from the College during the academic year is expected to notify the Dean, who must have written consent from the student's parents or guardians before her withdrawal may become effective.

MARKS AND VALUATIONS

The marks which are given each year, based on the class work and on the examinations given at the end of a course are: A (excellent), B (good), C (fair), D (low), E (failure). The mark of D implies that special conditions regarding dependent courses and graduation may be imposed by the Faculty. In case any such conditions are imposed, both the student and the parents or guardian are notified.

In determining the general quality of a student's work, the following valuations have been established: A=4, B=3, C=2, D=1.

COLLEGE ACTIVITIES

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

In May of each year the senior class publishes the Microcosm, which gives information about the senior class, the College Faculty, and the various organizations of the students. The book is illustrated by photographs of the seniors and of members of the Faculty, and also by pictures showing episodes in the life of the College.

The Simmons News is published weekly by the students, and contains information on matters of current interest.

P-S is a magazine published periodically to encourage creative writing.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

The Student Government Association, of which every student automatically becomes a member when she registers, is particularly interested in the Honor System. Under this system examinations and tests are not proctored, since the students assume the responsibility for the conduct of the classes. A branch of this Association has established the rules which contribute to the maintenance of the college regulations in the dormitories.

Other organizations representing the various activities of the students are: the Academy, the American Student Union, the Art Guild, the Athletic Association, the Girl Scout Club, the Dramatic Association, the Poetry Club, the Musical Association, the Rainbow Club, the Young Women's Christian Association, the Menorah Society, the Christian Science Society, the Unity Club, the Newman Club, and Student Forum.

THE COLLEGE EDUCATIONAL BUILDINGS

THE MAIN COLLEGE BUILDING

The main college building is situated near the southern end of The Fenway, facing the city. It may be reached by all Brookline Avenue buses, which leave Kenmore station, and by all Huntington Avenue cars. The building occupies a frontage of 480 feet and has a ground area of about 36,000 square feet. The central portion was completed in 1904, the west wing in 1909, and the east wing in 1929.

The College Library. To supplement the instruction in the various courses, there is a reference library of more than sixty thousand volumes, to which extensive additions are being made every year. The books are accessible during the hours of the day while the College is in session. Students of the College, whether residents of the city of Boston or not, are allowed the privileges of the Boston Public Library. Non-residents must obtain special cards for these privileges from the Librarian of the College.

The Gymnasium and the Athletic Ground. A room on the first floor of the west wing of the main college building has been equipped for the Department of Physical Education. The shower baths, dressing rooms, and lockers are in the basement. Behind the college building is an athletic ground with tennis, handball, and basketball courts and provision for archery, hockey, and golf. A moderate amount of work in corrective gymnastics, dancing, and supervised games is required of all the first-year students who are following a four-year program. For other students exercise is optional. Each student taking gymnastic work is expected to provide herself with a suitable costume specified by the College.

The Lunchroom. The lunchroom is located in the basement of the west wing of the main college building. Lunches are served every day when the College is in session.

The Coöperative Store. The Simmons Coöperative Store, in the basement of the east wing of the main college building, is open every week day except Saturday from eight-thirty to four o'clock. On Saturday the store closes at twelve o'clock. Here students may purchase or order books, stationery, and so forth, at the lowest market prices. At the end of the year the net profits revert to the students.

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

The classes for students in the School of Social Work are held at 18 Somerset Street. In this building is the special library, including the important and valuable collection of books and pamphlets relating to charities, which was transferred to the College by the Boston Children's Aid Society. The library is open to all members of the College.

PRINCE SCHOOL OF STORE SERVICE EDUCATION

The classes for students in the Prince School of Store Service Education are held at 19 Allston Street, Beacon Hill, Boston.

RESIDENCE *

All undergraduate students who do not live in their own homes or with immediate relatives are expected to live in the college houses, under the care of the College. Exceptions to this rule may be made only with the approval of the Dean secured in advance, and any changes in residence during the college year must also receive her previous approval. The Dean does not ordinarily grant permission to first-year students to live outside the College for the purpose of earning board and room.

THE FRANCIS STREET HOUSES

All resident members of the first-year class live in the Francis Street Houses, a group of dormitories at 9, 21, and 36 Francis Street, 240 Kent Street, and 14 Newell Road, in Brookline. Each house accommodates from thirteen to twenty-seven girls and a Resident Head. Most of the rooms are for two students.

THE BROOKLINE AVENUE DORMITORIES

The principal dormitories are situated in Boston about a quarter of a mile from the main College building, on the land bounded by Brookline Avenue, Short Street, and Pilgrim Road. This group consists of North Hall, at 86 Pilgrim Road, and South Hall, at 321 Brookline Avenue, each accommodating about fifty-five students, Evans Hall, at 305 Brookline Avenue, to be ready for occupancy in September, 1939, accommodating seventy-two students, and nine small houses varying in capacity from twelve to twenty-two students. These are Appleton (291 Brookline Avenue), Bellevue (78 Pilgrim Road), Brick (76 Pilgrim Road), Brookline (281 Brookline Avenue), East (2 Short Street), Longwood (46 Pilgrim Road), Pilgrim (54 Pilgrim Road), Students' (4 Short

* Detailed information regarding the cost of residence may be found on pages 84 ff.

Street), and West House (94 Pilgrim Road). Most of the rooms in North, South and Evans Halls are single rooms, but there are a few commodious double rooms and two-room suites with accommodations for two students. The small houses consist almost entirely of double rooms.

ROOM FURNISHINGS

The College provides the necessary furniture for all rooms, but does not include rugs, bookcases, or window curtains. Rugs should not exceed four and one-half by seven and one-half feet in size. Students may bring easy chairs, but large pieces of furniture are not advised. The bed is a single couch, three feet wide; pillows are twenty-two inches wide. The student supplies table napkins, towels, and all her bed linen, with the couch cover and any blankets in excess of the two provided by the College. Bed linen is included in the student's personal laundry, for which she makes her own arrangements.

ASSIGNMENT OF ROOMS

Students already in residence choose their rooms in the spring. Lots are drawn in the order of classes, the juniors having the preference. The payment of a deposit of $25 is required before any room can be reserved. If, after all the students in the upper classes have been accommodated, there are any available rooms not reserved for first-year students, they are assigned, in the order of admission, to students entering with advanced standing from other colleges.

Candidates for admission to the College as resident freshmen should make early application to the Registrar of the College, since rooms are assigned in the order of application to those whose admission is completed by August 1 of the year of entrance. The names of those who apply for rooms after August 1 or whose admission is not complete by that date are placed on a waiting list, rooms being assigned to those students in the order of the completion of the requirements for admission. Rooms are assigned by the Dean's office.

REGULATIONS

The College houses are under the general supervision of the Dean, who is represented by the heads of the groups, with a resident assistant in each house. The direction of matters of order and conduct is assumed by the Student Government Association.

Students may enter the college houses the day before the term opens, and are expected to leave the first day after their final college exercise. Exceptions to this rule are made only with the consent of the Dean. All college houses are closed during the Christmas and spring vacations.

HEALTH

It is the purpose of the College to conduct a health program which will result in graduating women physically as well as mentally fit to enter the professions for which they have prepared. A satisfactory certificate of health and of vaccination, for which the College provides the form, is required of every candidate for admission to the College. Good health is important, and while no one is refused consideration because of health, any handicap should be mentioned in the application for admission and should be noted on the health certificate.

Each first-year student is required to have a general physical examination by the college physician, or one of her assistants, at the College just before or soon after the beginning of the college year, and whenever thereafter it may seem advisable.

A student may be refused admission, or required to withdraw from the College if, in the opinion of the college authorities, the examination reveals a condition of health which makes it unwise for her to undertake college work.

The college physician holds office hours daily in the main college building, and has general supervision of the infirmary. The nurses at the infirmary are directly responsible to the physician. Minor illnesses are treated by the physician either in her office or in the infirmary, but students having contagious diseases or those whose illness may be severe or prolonged are referred to hospitals or approved physicians in the city. The expense of such treatment must be borne by the student or her family, who are if possible consulted in advance. Upon the request of a student's parents, reports of treatments or consultations with the college physician are sent to the family physician.

The College does not provide medicines, but such vaccinations or inoculations as may be required or advised by the physician or by the school in which the student is registered, will be given without extra cost to the student. Any necessary diagnostic X-ray work will be done at the College with no additional expense to the student. X-ray examinations which require special apparatus, cannot be done at the College and the cost of these must be borne by the student. Laboratory tests prescribed by the physician will be done without additional charge. The health fees are described on page 88.

FEES AND DEPOSITS

The first bill includes one-half of the annual charge for tuition (minus the $10 application fee), one-half of the annual charge for residence (minus the $25 deposit), the first payment of the laboratory fees, the deposits required in science courses, the health fee, and the optional student activities fee. The second bill includes the remainder of the annual charge for tuition, residence, laboratory fees, and deposits.

Bills must be paid in advance. Payment of the first bill is due not later than September 23, 1939, and of the second bill not later than January 27, 1940. Checks should be made payable to Simmons College and presented at the Comptroller's Office.

Since commitments for instruction and other arrangements are necessarily made for the full year in advance, no reduction or rebate of fees or of residence charges can be made in cases of extended absence or of withdrawal during the year.

TUITION

Full-time program

$300 a year for students entering in 1937 or thereafter.

$250 a year for students entering in 1936 or earlier.

A fee of $10, to be deducted from the first tuition payment, is required at the time of application. This fee is not returned if the application is withdrawn, or if the applicant is not able to meet the entrance requirements. This fee is required of all applicants except those for the briefer programs in the Schools of Nursing and Social Work.

Exceptions

One-year program in Public Health Nursing (II)

$250. ($100 for the field work; $150 for the half-year of full-time college work.)

Half-year program in preparation for schools of nursing (V) $125.

Partial program (fewer than twelve hours).

$75 basis for a four year-hour course.

$40 for a two year-hour course.

$25 minimum charge.

School of Nursing:

$20 basis for each one year-hour course (approximately thirty hours of class work).

School of Social Work:

$25 basis each half-year for a two-hour course.

$20 each half-year for a one and one-half hour course.

certain rooms at $360 and $410 assigned, after application to the Dean's Office, to students who need to keep their expenses at a minimum.

Pilgrim House, $200 for one half-year for students registered in Management 2.

A deposit of $25 is required before any room can be reserved. The entire amount of this deposit is returned if notice is received by the College before August 1 that the student does not wish the room. A rebate of $15 is made if the room is given up after August 1, provided the place is filled on or before the opening day of College. Unless a room is occupied, it is not reserved after the second week of the college year except by special arrangement.

The charge for residence in all houses includes room, board, heat, and light. For students living in the Francis Street Houses the fee includes an allowance to cover luncheons in the college lunchroom on days when classes are in session. Upper-class students return to the main dormitories for luncheon.

Rooms are reserved for the college year; students are not expected to leave the dormitories unless they withdraw from the College.

LABORATORY FEES AND DEPOSITS

OTHER FEES

Health fee

$7, required of all students with the following exceptions:

Prince School of Store Service Education.

School of Social Work.

Student nurses sent by affiliated hospitals.

This fee covers the cost of medical examinations and consultations given by the college physician and her assistants, or treatments which may be given by the college nurses, and a maximum of five days of care a year in the college infirmary as advised by the physician. Any infirmary care beyond five days is charged to the student at the rate of $1.50 a day. Detailed information regarding the health service may be found on page 82.

Student activities fee—optional

$2.50 for first and second-year students.

$3.50 for third or fourth-year students.

While this fee is optional, participation in major class activities is dependent upon its payment. It is devoted to the support of The Simmons News and Student Government, and the remainder distributed to the various classes.

Graduation fee

$10, including cost of the diploma, required of all candidates for the degree who have not previously received a college degree.

$5, for other candidates for the degree.

School of Library Science

About $35 should be allowed for seniors and graduate students for textbooks, supplies, and desirable material on library science as a nucleus of professional libraries. The $10 deposit listed on page 88 covers membership in the American Library Association, subscription to the Publishers' Weekly, expenses for visits to libraries, and so forth.

School of Nursing, summer session of the five-year program (I)

$50 tuition.

$60 residence in the dormitories.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND LOANS

Financial assistance, to be applied to tuition alone, is available through a limited number of scholarships, gifts, and loan funds. First-year students, unless they qualify under the terms of regional or restricted scholarships (see below), are not eligible for this assistance. It is available in varying amounts to students who have been at the College for a year or more. Gifts are awarded primarily on a basis of high scholastic standing. Loans are made to students of unquestioned ability who present evidence of good faith in business dealings.

Candidates for financial aid should make written application to the Committee on Scholarships and Loans before May 1 for consideration at the annual meeting in June. A form for this purpose is provided on request.

REGIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS FOR ENTERING STUDENTS

The College has established four scholarships providing tuition for the first year, to be awarded to one student from each of the following districts: I. Delaware, District of Columbia, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia; II. Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin; III. Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska; IV. California, Oregon, Washington. The College reserves the right to withhold the scholarship in any region in which no suitable candidate applies. Each scholarship is awarded to a highly recommended student who has shown exceptional ability in the secondary school. Regional scholars are expected to live in a Simmons dormitory and to meet all expenses of residence. The Committee on Scholarships and Loans gives special consideration to the holders of regional scholarships after the first year.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND GRANTS

A number of scholarships have been founded for the aid of meritorious students. For some years, also, a grant has been made to the College by the Committee of the Permanent Charity Fund, Incorporated, for the benefit of needy students. Subject to any special conditions established by the donors, these scholarships and grants are ordinarily awarded to those students in the second, third, and fourth years of their courses who are in need of pecuniary assistance and who have shown distinction in their work in college. Scholarships range from about $35 to about $300, only a few amounting to the latter sum. These scholarships are the following:

The Sewall Scholarships, derived from the accumulated fund of the former Boston Cooking School Corporation and available for two students in the School of Home Economics.

The Sarah Orne Jewett Scholarship, contributed by friends of the late Sarah Orne Jewett, preference to be given to a student from Maine.

The Mary Morton Kehew Scholarship, established as a memorial by the family of the late Mrs. Mary Morton Kehew, for many years a member of the Corporation of Simmons College.

The May Alden Ward Memorial Scholarship, established by various organizations and individuals in memory of the late Mrs. May Alden Ward.

The Sarah E. Guernsey D. A. R. Scholarship,* established by the Massachusetts Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in honor of Mrs. Sarah E. Guernsey, a former President-General of the National Society. In its award preference is to be given to an orphan of an American soldier.

The Mrs. Winthrop Sargent Scholarships, three in number, established in memory of the late Mrs. Winthrop Sargent of Boston, for the benefit of students in the School of Home Economics.

The Nora Saltonstall Scholarship, a memorial scholarship for the benefit of a student in the School of Social Work.

* Open to first-year students.

The Dorothy Spaulding Scholarship,* preference being given to a graduate of Potter Academy, in Sebago, Maine.

The Sutter Memorial Scholarship, established in memory of the late Emma M. Sutter.

The Caroline T. Slater Scholarship, a gift of the trustees of the Andrew C. Slater Fund. In its award preference is to be given to a student from Massachusetts.

The Women's Scholarship Association Fund Scholarship for Jewish Girls,* to be awarded to a student, preferably from Massachusetts, in the entering class. The Scholarship is awarded only to a candidate recommended by the Women's Scholarship Association.

The Winifred Armstrong Scholarship,* for the benefit of a student from Calais, Maine.

The Maria Howard Hilliard Memorial Fund Scholarship, preferably for a student in the School of Home Economics.

The B. Marion Brown Memorial Fund Scholarship, for a student in the School of General Science or for one in the School of Home Economics who is specializing in chemistry.

The Katharine Lent Stevenson Scholarship,* for the benefit of a member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which reserves the right to appoint or approve recipients of the scholarship. Beneficiaries must agree to devote as many years, after the completion of the college course, to social work along the line of effort of the W.C.T.U. as have been spent in enjoying the benefit of the scholarship.

The Amasa J. Whiting Scholarships, to assist in the payment of the tuition of a worthy and deserving student.

The Microcosm Scholarship, provided from funds accumulated by the successive boards of editors of the Microcosm.

The Frances Rollins Morse Memorial Scholarship, established by friends of the late Miss Morse, a charter member of the Corporation and for many years a devoted friend of the College and its students. It is awarded to the applicant in the senior class who is regarded as most worthy of recognition.

* Open to first-year students.

The Lillian Clark Brown Scholarship,* preference being given to a resident of New Britain, Connecticut, in need of financial assistance.

The Mitchell Scholarship,* preferably for a graduate of Calais Academy and High School, Calais, Maine.

The Nellie Parney Carter Scholarship Fund, to be used for maintaining scholarships in the College.

The Emerette O. Patch Fund,* preference being given to applicants who are graduates of the Girls' High School of Boston, or who are graduates of the High School of Lexington, Massachusetts, provided that each applicant from the last-named school shall, at the time of her application, have resided in Lexington for not less than five years immediately preceding.

The Class of 1910 Memorial Scholarship,* preferably for the daughter of a Simmons College graduate.

The Theodora Kimball Hubbard Scholarship, the income to be used to recognize distinguished scholarship and achievement.

The Florence Stinchfield Patch Fund,* preference to be given to applicants who are graduates of the High School of Lexington, Massachusetts, provided that each applicant shall, at the time of her application, have resided in Lexington for not less than five years immediately preceding.

The Miriam Franc Skirball Scholarship Fund, established by friends in memory of the late Mrs. Skirball, a former instructor in the Department of English. A partial scholarship to be awarded annually to a deserving student by the Committee on Scholarships and Loans with the advice of the Director of the School of English.

* Open to first-year students.

The Henry Clay Jackson Fund, the income to be used for maintaining scholarships in the College.

THE ALUMNAE AWARDS

The Alumnae Honor Award, a prize of one hundred dollars, is given to the senior who most nearly approximates the ideal Simmons student, distinguished as to scholarship, participation in student activities, contribution to College life, and general all-around excellence.

The Alumnae Scholarship Award, a prize of one hundred dollars, is given to the senior of excellent scholarship who comes recommended by the School in which she is enrolled as the most promising in her chosen field.

THE GRADUATE DIVISION SCHOLARSHIP

The Graduate Division Scholarship, a partial scholarship awarded to a student who is to be registered in one of the programs offered for college graduates. Need, outstanding record in the undergraduate years, and professional promise form the basis of award. Application should be made to the Dean by May 1 of the year of entrance.

SCHOLARSHIP AID OFFERED BY ALUMNAE CLUBS

The following Simmons Clubs provide a certain amount of scholarship aid each year: the Simmons Club of Cleveland, the Simmons College Club of New Jersey, and the Westchester County (New York) Simmons Club. Information as to the amount of the aid and the conditions of award may be obtained by writing to the Executive Secretary of the Alumnae Association, Simmons College, 300 The Fenway, Boston.

LOAN FUNDS

Several loan funds are administered by the Committee on Scholarships and Loans for the benefit of needy students. Awards from these funds may be applied on the tuition fee only. Loans are to be repaid without interest at specified times.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR EARNING EXPENSES

It is the policy of the College to advise a student who is planning to earn part of the cost of her education to come to Simmons only if she is provided with funds sufficient to meet the expenses of the first year, at least. When she has demonstrated her ability to carry successfully the work of the College, she may, if necessary, assume the added responsibility of partial self-maintenance.

Upper-class students may earn board and room by assisting in some capacity in private families approved by the Dean. Only those who are physically robust and who maintain high scholastic standing are permitted to assume this burden. A group of students earn a portion of the residence fee annually by performing certain duties in the college dormitories. Application for this work should be made to the Dean's office as far in advance as possible. Students may sometimes earn small sums in various ways, such as taking care of children, helping in the college lunchroom, doing clerical work, and by other types of employment which the city affords. Such work, however, should not be depended upon to provide funds other than for incidental expenses.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

THE requirements for each year in the various programs are shown on the preceding pages in the outlines of the programs in each School.

Courses indicated by numerals are given for the full college year unless otherwise stated.

Courses indicated by letter (e.g. Chemistry A) are not counted toward a degree, unless taken in connection with additional work prescribed by the Faculty.

A course which occupies a fourth of the full-time effort of a student for one year, irrespective of the actual number of class exercises, is assigned credit of four year-hours. A course which occupies a smaller fraction of a student's effort is assigned credit in the same ratio. A class period occupies forty-five minutes.

COLLEGE OPPORTUNITIES.

The course aims to acquaint the entering student with the educational opportunities of Simmons College and the various professions to which the different programs lead; to develop her in self-analysis and self-evaluation through the assistance of aptitude, interest, and personality tests; to aid her in the analysis and improvement of her study habits; and to assist her in adjusting herself to college life and to the responsibilities which come to the independent adult.

Miss SUTHERLAND.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION.

Two hours of exercise are required each week of all first-year students who are not excused by a physician. Dancing, basketball, fencing, archery, hockey, tennis, and corrective gymnastic exercises are offered. Each student entering the course in physical education is required to present a health certificate showing that she has no defect in heart or lungs, and to pass a physical examination.

Miss DIALL, Mrs. CHAPMAN.

LANGUAGE, LITERATURE, AND THE ARTS

ENGLISH *

The courses in English furnish instruction in both composition and literature. Practice in composition is provided mainly in certain courses; but every written exercise in an English course is a test in composition and may be considered a failure on that ground alone.

1. COMPOSITION, RHETORIC, AND INTRODUCTION TO LITERATURE.

[4 yr. hrs.

The purpose of this course is to instruct the student in the use of English, not only as a tool necessary in every college course and in every vocation, but also as an instrument of enjoyment in every avocation. The practice in writing has for its aim precision of expression; the reading, enjoyment of literature. The material of the course includes examples of modern prose, a great novel, a great play, some biography, and many short poems. There are lectures, class discussions, and individual conferences.

Miss SLEEPER, Miss DODGE, Miss CROCKETT, Miss MATLACK, Mr. SYPHER, Mr. BOSWORTH.

2. ENGLISH LITERATURE OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. [4 yr. hrs.

(a) A century notable for thought which has influenced our own, as well as for practical achievement. One aim of the course, therefore, is to acquaint the student with some of the significant ideas of this period in various fields of experience: economics, politics, science, education, art, religion, and philosophy. A second aim of the course is to increase the student's enjoyment of reading by a study of selections as works of art. To these ends writers are chosen from this list: Wordsworth, Byron, Shelley, Keats, Ruskin, Carlyle, Dickens, George Eliot, Hardy, and Browning. Written work, not oftener than once in two weeks, and individual conferences with the instructor are required.

Miss SLEEPER, Miss DODGE, Miss CROCKETT, Mr. SYPHER.

Prerequisite: English 1.

(b) A course for first-year students whose fall placement tests indicate unusual ability in English. A study of converging influences in English literature and their development into the social thinking of the present day. Classes are usually conducted by student-chairmen and consist of oral reports based on extensive outside reading. Two research papers of some scope are required, together with weekly assignments in recognized masterpieces.

Miss MATLACK.

* Courses open to second-, third-, and fourth-year students: English 2, 3, 6, 7, 8, 9. Courses open to third- and fourth-year students, and second-year students who have completed English 2 or 3: English 11, 13, 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, 21.

3. NARRATIVE AND CRITICAL WRITING. [4 yr. hrs.]

Lectures, discussions, collateral reading, themes, and conferences. The themes are exercises in narration, and in the criticism and analysis of prose fiction. Several novels and a large number of short stories are read and discussed.

This course is planned for students in the School of Library Science but is open to students of other Schools.

Miss DODGE, Miss MATLACK.

Prerequisite: English 1.

[4, 5. ENGLISH LITERATURE.] [4 yr. hrs.]

A survey designed to offer an introduction to further reading in older English literature and to furnish backgrounds of the history of thought and society. During the first half-year emphasis is placed on important writers, to the time of Dryden, and on the characteristics of major literary periods. Each author is studied as an interpretation of his epoch and of universal values.

The second half-year follows the same plan, considering English literature from Dryden to 1900.

Prerequisite: English 1.

Not offered in 1939-40.]

6, 7. AMERICAN LITERATURE. [4 yr. hrs.]

During the first half-year American literature of the nineteenth century is considered. Such topics and authors are studied as the following: puritanism and romanticism in Thoreau, Emerson, Melville; Southern romanticism in Poe and Lanier; the rise of realism, from early folk lore, western humor, and tales of local color to the works of Mark Twain, Harte, Jewett, Howells; modern poetic tendencies in Whitman, Emily Dickinson; social protest in Moody; the rise of naturalism in Crane and Norris.

During the second half-year consideration is given to American literature of the twentieth century. Such tendencies as the following are discussed: revolts against the machine and against war, the village, and old romantic ideals; new experiments in poetry, biography, and criticism; new appraisals of frontier life; the emergence of the South; a new romanticism; conservatives in realism and mysticism. The writers considered include: Anderson, Dreiser, Cather, Cabell, Glasgow, Rolvaag, Hemingway, Santayana; Adams, Bradford; Mencken, Babbitt; Robinson, Frost, T. S. Eliot, O'Neill.

Miss CROCKETT.

Prerequisite: English 1.

Offered: as a year course, or either half may be taken separately.

8. SPOKEN ENGLISH. [2 yr. hrs.]

The aim of this course is to develop a clear, correct and pleasing voice for speaking and reading. This end is sought through the study of carefully graduated material in both prose and poetry, with due attention to public speaking and group discussion. There is some study of voice reproduction, and phonographic records are made to test the progress of the individual student. The course is not primarily declamatory or elocutional, but opportunity for elementary dramatic work is offered to such students as may show special aptitude.

Miss ROGERS.

Prerequisite: English 1.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

9. THE ENGLISH NOVEL. [2 yr. hrs.]

A study of representative authors and important tendencies to the present day. Considered primarily as a literary type, the novel is also discussed in relation to certain phases of contemporary English life and thought. Due attention is given to recent developments in the field.

Students who are taking or who have taken English 3 are not admitted to English 9.

Miss MATLACK.

Prerequisite: English 1.

Offered: 1st half-year.

10. CONTEMPORARY BOOKS. [2 yr. hrs.]

A study of a limited number of books recently published, selected from the fields of novel, biography, and essay, and taken as a basis for discussion. Selected reading of the classics is required for the consideration of literary backgrounds and analogies. Reports, discussion, and critical papers.

For second-year students in the Schools of Home Economics, General Science, and Nursing.

Miss SLEEPER.

Prerequisite: English 1.

Offered: 2d half-year.

11. THE BIBLE AS LITERATURE. [2 yr. hrs.]

A study of the Old Testament in English. Besides the careful consideration of selected passages of Biblical narrative, poetry, prophecy, and wisdom literature in the King James version, there is collateral reading to give historical background and show the treatment of Biblical themes in English literature.

Miss SLEEPER.

Elective for third- and fourth-year students.

Offered: 1st half-year.

[12. GREEK AND ROMAN CLASSICS IN TRANSLATION.] [2 yr. hrs.]

Selections from Homer, the Greek dramatists, Plato, Aristotle, the Roman dramatists, Lucretius, Cicero, Virgil, Horace, Ovid, Apuleius, Marcus Aurelius, and the so-called Longinus are read in translation, with a discussion of major "classical" ideas.

Elective for third- and fourth-year students.

Not offered in 1939-40.]

13. POETRY, BRITISH AND AMERICAN, SINCE 1880. [2 yr. hrs.]

After a general consideration of poetry as an art, and of theories and movements in subject-matter and technique since 1880, special attention is given to the work of Hardy, Bridges, Yeats, Frost, and Robinson.

Mr. GAY.

Elective for third- and fourth-year students.

Offered: 2d half-year.

14. SHAKESPEARE.

[2 yr. hrs.]

An introduction to Shakespeare's complete works and to the theatre and stage of his time. The plays are, however, treated as great literature to be comprehended and enjoyed by reader and spectator. Students intending to elect English 15 or 16 would profit by the previous election of English 14.

Mr. GAY.

Elective for third- and fourth-year students.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

15. TYPES OF DRAMA.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A study of dramatic structure and methods of stage representation in the principal national dramas of the continent from the ancient Greek to the end of the nineteenth century, including Ibsen.

Mr. GAY.

Elective for third- and fourth-year students.

Offered: 1st half-year.

16. STUDIES IN MODERN DRAMA.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A number of plays by modern American, British, and continental authors are read and discussed, and some attention is given to the development of the modern stage.

Mr. BOSWORTH.

Elective for third- and fourth-year students.

Offered: 2d half-year.

[17. EARLY ENGLISH LITERATURE.]

[2 yr. hrs.]

A rapid survey of literature in England from the eighth to the fifteenth centuries, with attention to the rudiments of Old English. Selections from such works as The Anglo-Saxon Chronicle, The Battle of Maldon, Beowulf, Havelok the Dane, and Layamon's Brut, as well as specimens of Chaucer and Piers Plowman, are read in the original.

Elective for third- and fourth-year students.

Not offered in 1939-40.]

18. REPRESENTATIVE POETS.

[2 yr. hrs.]

The main purpose of this course is to study the poetic philosophy of life as expressed in important poets of various periods: the seventeenth century, the eighteenth century, the Romantic period, and the Victorian period. As extensive reading as time permits is required in the works of Milton, Pope, Keats, Tennyson, and Hardy, as well as in the social and literary backgrounds of their times.

Mr. GAY.

Elective for third- and fourth-year students.

Offered: 1st half-year.

19. IDEAS AND PERSONS FROM THE RECENT PAST. [2 yr. hrs.]

A study of some of the figures and several of the notable works of English literature from the recent past which are of special importance to the present: Morris as poet, social thinker, and father of the crafts movement; Bernard Shaw; Meredith as poet; AE, poet, painter, critic, and promoter of the coöperative movement; Hardy's Dynasts, and T. E. Lawrence's Seven Pillars of Wisdom.

Miss DODGE.

Prerequisite: English 2 or 3 or 4, 5.

Offered: 2d half-year.

20. SEVENTEENTH CENTURY ENGLISH LITERATURE. [2 yr. hrs.]

Discussion of literary, religious, and philosophical conflicts within the "baroque" period. Readings in such writers as Donne, Herrick, Herbert, the "Cavalier" lyrists, Burton, Browne, Milton, Crashaw, Dryden, and Locke. An effort is made to explain the unusual revival of interest in the seventeenth century on the part of critics like T. S. Eliot.

Mr. SYPHER.

Elective for third- and fourth-year students.

Offered: 1st half-year.

21. ENGLISH LITERATURE AND SOCIETY IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. [2 yr. hrs.]

Discussion of Pope, Swift, Defoe, Thomson, Gray, Richardson, Johnson's circle, Fanny Burney and the Blue Stockings, and Thomas Paine, to trace the rise of modern ideas in literature, ethics, religion, and politics. English 20 is in no way prerequisite to English 21.

Mr. SYPHER.

Elective for third- and fourth-year students.

Offered: 1st half-year.

30. FORM, STYLE AND USAGE. [2 yr. hrs.]

The terms "form" and "style" are interpreted in the professional sense of the usage of printing and publishing houses and editorial offices. The course includes a consideration of the more advanced problems of spelling, abbreviation, capitalization, hyphenation and word-division, punctuation, the use of italics, and correct form in footnotes and indexing; and of manuscript preparation and the materials and methods of printing. Some attention is given to correct usage of words and to recognized forms in letters. The course is based upon the style book of the University of Chicago Press.

Mr. BOSWORTH.

Offered: 2d half-year.

31. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. [2 yr. hrs.]

Various kinds of writing, practical and creative, other than the purely journalistic. The instruction is largely individual, each student cultivating the types that interest her. The work in class includes the reading, discussion, and criticism of papers written by the members.

Mr. BOSWORTH.

Prerequisite: An average mark of B in first- and second-year English, or the approval of the instructor.

Enrollment: twenty students.

Offered: 1st half-year.

32. JOURNALISTIC FUNDAMENTALS.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A practical study of the newspaper in all its phases. Elementary practice in reporting, editing, editorial and feature writing. This course is designed both for those contemplating a journalistic career and for those planning to enter one of the many vocations in which knowledge of newspaper practices will prove an invaluable asset.

Primarily for third- and fourth-year students in the School of English, but open to third- and fourth-year students in other Schools with the approval of the instructor.

Mr. PLAYFAIR.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

33. ADVANCED JOURNALISM.

[2 yr. hrs.]

An advanced course in news writing and editing, with practical experience in covering assignments, planning features, copy-reading, head-writing and makeup. Designed for students who intend to take up newspaper work or publicity as a profession, or wish to acquire proficiency in the news style of writing.

Mr. PLAYFAIR.

Prerequisite: English 32.

Offered: 2d half-year.

34. PUBLICITY.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A practical course in publicity procedure with projects in analyzing the needs of the client, outlining campaigns, and preparing and placing copy. The course, which is designed for students wishing to engage in public relations work, emphasizes institutional and educational publicity rather than the purely commercial.

Mr. PLAYFAIR.

Prerequisite: English 32.

Offered: 1st half-year.

35. EDITING, PUBLISHING TECHNIQUES, AND DESIGN.

[4 yr. hrs.]

A course in the professional use of English and the graphic arts, designed to prepare students for work in publishing and advertising offices.

The course is devoted to the technical aspects of publishing; to graphic arts, particularly the application of elements of design to composition and display; and to the application of these fundamentals through a detailed study of their use in magazine, advertising, and book publishing offices. The course also treats the laws governing the press, literary contracts, appraisal of literary material, magazine article writing, the selling of books and magazines, particularly by direct mail methods, and the organization and professional standards of magazine and book publishing houses. Classroom work and lectures are supplemented by visits to publishing offices, printing and engraving plants, and paper mills. During the second half-year each student has the opportunity to do practice work in book publishing and magazine offices, book stores, and advertising offices.

Mr. VALZ, Mr. BUSH.

Prerequisite: English 30.

36. CRITICISM AND REVIEWING.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A study of the types, forms, and technique of literature, with a view to appreciation and criticism. Practice in the reviewing of books, plays, pictures, or music.

Mr. GAY.

Offered: 2d half-year.

37. TEACHING OF SECONDARY-SCHOOL ENGLISH.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A study of principles, methods, and materials for the teaching of English in the high school, including observation and practice in certain schools in Boston and the vicinity and considerable work with actual secondary-school compositions. The work of the classroom consists partly of demonstration by the instructor and partly of experiment by the student in the presentation of literature and composition to pupils of high school and junior high school age.

Mr. BOSWORTH.

Offered: 1st half-year.

HISTORY OF THE BOOK: LIBRARY SCIENCE 20.

INDEXING AND ABSTRACTING: LIBRARY SCIENCE 21.

USE OF BOOKS AND LIBRARIES: LIBRARY SCIENCE 22.

* Students are not allowed, ordinarily, to begin two foreign languages in the same year.

† German 5, 6, 7, and 8 may be taken independently or in any combination.

7. GERMAN LITERATURE OF THE CLASSICAL PERIOD OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY.* [2 yr. hrs.]

Reading of representative works of Lessing, Goethe, and Schiller, keeping in mind the history and social life of the period. Lectures, conferences, reports. Correspondence with students in Germany.

Mr. KLEIN.

Prerequisite: German 2.

Offered: 2d half-year.

8. GERMAN DRAMA OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.* [2 yr. hrs.]

A study of representative works of the most significant German dramatists of the period (Kleist, Grillparzer, Hebbel, Ludwig, Anzengruber, Hauptmann) in relation to the literary and intellectual currents of their times.

Mr. KLEIN.

Prerequisite: German 2, and the approval of the instructor.

Offered: 2d half-year.

SPANISH†

1. ELEMENTARY SPANISH.

[4 yr. hrs.]

First half-year: grammar, composition, and reading of simple texts; lectures and reports on some aspects of Spanish and Spanish-American history and literature. Second half-year: intensive reading, composition, lectures, and reports; choice of emphasis: on rapid reading or on speaking and writing Spanish.

Mrs. HELMAN, Mr. WYLIE.

2. INTERMEDIATE SPANISH.

[4 yr. hrs.]

First half-year: grammar review and intensive reading of modern prose. Second half-year: survey of Spanish literature, prose composition including commercial correspondence, reading of drama and poetry.

Mrs. HELMAN.

Prerequisite: Spanish 1, or the equivalent.

Offered: as a year course, or the first half may be taken separately.

3. SOCIAL THOUGHT AND SATIRE IN MODERN SPANISH LITERATURE.

[2 yr. hrs]

A course dealing with the social criticism found in Spanish literature from 1700 to 1936. Intensive study of selections from the works of authors who have made significant contributions to social thought, beginning with Feijóo and ending with Ortega y Gasset. Lectures, reports, discussion.

Mrs. HELMAN.

Prerequisite: Spanish 2, or Spanish 1 with the approval of the instructor.

Offered: 2d half-year.

* German 5, 6, 7, and 8 may be taken independently or in any combination.

† Students are not allowed, ordinarily, to begin two foreign languages in the same year.

[4. LITERATURE OF THE GOLDEN AGE.] [2 yr. hrs.

The dramatic and prose literature of the Golden Age: Lope de Vega, Tirso de Molina, Calderón de la Barca, and Cervantes. Lectures, reports, critical analysis and interpretation of texts.

Prerequisite: Spanish 2.

ART

1. HISTORY OF ART. [2 yr. hrs.

The aim of this course is to give a general view of the development of painting, sculpture, and architecture from their earliest beginnings to the close of the Italian Renaissance. Distinguished examples are shown by lantern slides, or visited in the museums of Boston and Cambridge, and are discussed with the view of establishing a practicable and usable basis for determining artistic degrees of excellence. Lantern slides, reading, and guidance in the Museum of Fine Arts, the Fogg Art Museum, and Fenway Court.

Mr. BUSH.

Offered: 2d half-year.

2. AN APPROACH TO THE ARTS. [2 yr. hrs.

The aim of this course is to develop an appreciation of the arts through a study of original pieces of painting and sculpture in the museums of Boston, and to proceed from those pieces into a study of the schools of art which surround them.

Mr. BUSH.

Offered: 1st half-year.

[3. PAINTING AND SCULPTURE OF THE ORIENT.] [2 yr. hrs.

A series of selected problems chosen from Indian, Chinese, and Japanese sculpture and painting. Discussion of lantern slides and prints, and museum study.

Prerequisite: Fine Arts 1 or 2.

Not offered in 1939-40.]

4. THE DUTCH AND FLEMISH MASTERS. [2 yr. hrs.

Rubens and the Dutch schools of the seventeenth century are studied largely as a preface to the painting of Frans Hals and Rembrandt, around whom the course centers. The course includes a discussion of the "Little Masters."

Mr. BUSH.

Prerequisite: Fine Arts 1 or 2.

Offered: 1st half-year.

5. MODERN AND CONTEMPORARY ART. [2 yr. hrs.

The first part of the course is devoted to a survey of the principal tendencies in sculpture and painting from Michelangelo to the Cubist-Classical Renaissance. The remainder of the course is given to a consideration of the contemporary art of Soviet Russia, Austria, Germany, France, and America. Primarily an appreciation course.

Mr. BUSH.

Prerequisite: Fine Arts 1 or 2.

Offered: 2d half-year.

6. INTERRELATIONS IN THE ARTS AND LITERATURE. [2 yr. hrs.]

A correlation of the literature, painting, sculpture, and architecture of Greece, medieval Europe, and eighteenth century France and England. Representative works in fine arts and literature are treated as related expressions of the thought and habit of each period. The work in art is supplemented by lantern slides and museum study.

Mr. BUSH, Mr. SYPER.

Prerequisite: Fine Arts 1 or 2.

Offered: 1st half-year.

7. THE TECHNIQUE AND THE ART OF PHOTOGRAPHY. [2 yr. hrs.]

The aim of this course is to aid the student in the development of the photographic techniques, and in the establishment of standards of critical judgment as to artistic excellence in commercial or avocational picture-taking. The course includes experience with cameras and their accessories, the uses of different films and filters, developing and printing, the making of lantern slides and enlargements, color photography and photomicrography. Students taking this course should own, or have access to, a camera.

Mr. BUSH, Mr. STEARNS.

Elective for third- and fourth-year students.

Offered: 2d half-year.

8. ART IN AMERICA. [2 yr. hrs.]

The more significant painters of post-Civil War times are introduced against the late nineteenth-century background as a prelude to the new social significance of the muralists, Benton, Robinson, Wood, and the Mexicans.

Mr. BUSH.

Prerequisite: Fine Arts 1 or 2.

Offered: 1st half-year.

MUSIC

1. AN APPROACH TO MUSIC. [2 yr. hrs.]

This course is a general survey of the development of music from its primitive beginnings to the present day. Its aim is to give the non-specialized listener a keener understanding of the structure of musical masterpieces, as well as a greater familiarity with the outstanding composers and their works. Typical forms and styles are analyzed and illustrated by records or at the pianoforte. No previous technical knowledge of music is required.

Mrs. MORIZE.

Offered: 1st half-year.

2. ORCHESTRAL MUSIC.

[2 yr. hrs.]

An analysis and detailed study of orchestral music, including symphonies, overtures, tone and symphonic poems, ballet music, and orchestral suites. The instruments of the orchestra are considered at length.

Mrs. MORIZE.

*Prerequisite: Music 1 or the approval of the instructor.Offered: 2d half-year.SOCIAL STUDIES*1. SOCIAL STUDIES.

[4 yr. hrs.]

An introductory survey of the historical, economic, sociological, and governmental factors which enter into the present-day civilization.

Mr. STEIGER, Mr. TRYON, Mr. PALMER, Mr. RANKIN.

HISTORY1. THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

[4 yr. hrs.]

A survey of the social and political factors in the history of Europe and of the European influence throughout the world during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries.

Mr. VARRELL.

2. INTERNATIONAL PROBLEMS OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY.

[4 yr. hrs.]

Lectures, discussions, newspaper reports, conferences. The course deals with the social and political conditions at the beginning of the twentieth century, the causes of the Great War, the settlement, and the outstanding developments since the Treaty of Versailles.

Mr. VARRELL.

3, 4. SOCIAL AND INTELLECTUAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.

[4 yr. hrs.]

The first part of this course is designed to survey the agricultural society as it existed from colonial beginnings to the Civil War, dealing with the economic, social, intellectual, and artistic phases in the every-day life of the people.

The second half-year is a survey of the industrial society as it rose to dominance from the close of the Civil War to the present day.

Outside reading and class discussion supplement the lectures throughout the year.

Mr. TRYON.

Offered: as a year course, or either half may be taken separately.

5. CONTEMPORARY AMERICA.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A survey of the larger social, cultural, and political problems confronting the American people at the present time.

See Government 2 for 2d half-year.

Mr. TRYON.

Offered: 1st half-year.

GOVERNMENT

1. COMPARATIVE GOVERNMENTS.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A comparative study of the institutions and methods of government in England, France, Soviet Russia, Nazi Germany, and Fascist Italy

Mr. VARRELL.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

2. UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

[2 yr. hrs.]

An introductory course in the principles and institutions of Federal and State government in the United States.

See History 5 for 1st half-year.

Mr. VARRELL.

Offered: 2d half-year.

ECONOMICS

1. ECONOMIC SOCIETY.

[4 yr. hrs.]

Discussions and special reports. A general introduction to the fundamental principles of economics approached through the study of current events and problems.

Miss STITES, Mr. FRIEDBERG, Mr. DAVIS, Mr. DOHERTY, Mrs. DAVIS.

2. ECONOMICS OF CONSUMPTION.

[2 yr. hrs.]

Discussions and reports. This course includes a study of the influences acting on the consumption of wealth, and the extent to which control of these influences is possible. Treatment of the subject involves investigation of the standards and costs of living among various groups of consumers in the United States. In this connection the subjects of housing, food, clothing, health, education and recreation are approached from the point of view of present conditions, and of the opportunities afforded the consumer to increase the satisfactions obtainable from a given outlay.

Miss STITES.

Offered: 1st half-year.

3, 4. SOCIAL STATISTICS.

[4 yr. hrs.]

Lectures, discussions, laboratory, and field work. The first half-year is a survey of methods of collecting, presenting, and analyzing statistical data. Illustrative material is drawn largely from the field of social statistics. The course includes the consideration of sources and collection of data, tabulation, graphic presentation, averages, dispersion, skewness, correlation, and sampling.

The second half-year includes a study of the construction of index numbers and the analysis of time series. Critical examination of significant published studies in the field of the student's special interest. Application of suitable statistical methods to data secured by the students in an investigation undertaken as a group project.

For students in the School of Preprofessional Studies.

Mrs. DAVIS.

Prerequisite: Economics 1.

Offered: as a year course, or the first half may be taken separately.

5. BUSINESS STATISTICS.

[2 yr. hrs.]

Lectures, discussion, laboratory. Reading and preparation of tables and graphs. A study of statistical methods of presentation and analysis of economic and business data. The course includes frequency distributions, averages, dispersion, skewness, index numbers, time series, correlation, and sampling.

Mrs. DAVIS.

Prerequisite: Economics 1.

Offered: 1st half-year.

6. MONEY AND BANKING.

[2 yr. hrs.]

Lectures and discussions. This course considers the actual organization and practices of the money and banking system of the United States and, in addition, aims to answer such questions as: What part does the monetary system play in the production and distribution of wealth? Ought we and can we consciously manage our monetary system with a view to the avoidance of booms and depressions? Does the current monetary system interfere with a rising standard of living for the majority of families?

Mr. FRIEDBERG.

Prerequisite: Economics 1.

Offered: 1st half-year.

7. LABOR PROBLEMS.

[2 yr. hrs.]

Lectures, discussions, and reports. A survey of the history and present status of the wage-earning class and of programs of improvement operating through public opinion, government and the organized relations of workers and employers.

Mr. DAVIS.

Prerequisite: Economics 1.

Offered: 2d half-year.

8. CONTEMPORARY ECONOMIC PROBLEMS.

[2 yr. hrs.]

Conferences, oral and written reports. Each student is assigned one or more topics for special study. Considerable freedom in choice of topics is permitted, and emphasis is placed upon guided individual investigation.

Prerequisite: Economics 1.

Not offered in 1939-40.]

SOCIOLOGY

1. INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY.

[2 yr. hrs.]

An introductory course in social theory and descriptive sociology. Discussion of such social institutions as the family, the state, the church, and the industrial system, with special emphasis on those institutions now subject to attack or modification.

Mr. STEIGER.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

2. APPLIED SOCIOLOGY.

[1 yr. hr.]

A discussion of society as human relations, primarily as it involves the individual and the problems of individual adjustment.

For students in the School of Nursing.

Mr. STEIGER.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

3. SOCIAL RESOURCES OF THE COMMUNITY.

[1 yr. hr.]

Lectures, followed by round-table discussions of the principles and methods of case work. Special emphasis is laid upon the social resources of the community.

For students in the School of Home Economics.

Miss BISSELL.

Offered: 2d half-year.

4. THE FAMILY.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A course tracing the origins of the family institution from the earliest times, with discussions of the different theories of the development of the family; modern influences making for a looser organization of the family; contrasts of urban and rural conditions. The relation of broken homes to juvenile delinquency is treated. Attention is given to the changing status of women.

Mr. DAVIS.

Prerequisite: Sociology 1.

Offered: 2d half-year.

5. INTRODUCTION TO THE FIELDS OF SOCIAL WORK.

[4 yr. hrs.]

The study of the fields of social work, their background, and present status and goals. A discussion group whose objective is to acquaint students who wish to enter professional schools of social work, or fields closely allied to social work, with the social thinking which has led to present-day concepts, organization, and objective.

For fourth-year students who plan to enter schools of social work.

Miss HARDWICK, and special lecturers.

PHILOSOPHY, PSYCHOLOGY, AND EDUCATIONPHILOSOPHY*1. PROBLEMS OF CONTEMPORARY PHILOSOPHY. [2 yr. hrs.]

A course of analytical discussions on readings in contemporary philosophical criticism and philosophical reconstruction necessitated by advances in biological, physical, and mathematical sciences. The field of values and appreciation is considered with reference to the present changing economic and social background.

Mr. HARLEY.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

2. INTRODUCTION TO SOCIAL ETHICS. [2 yr. hrs.]

Lectures and analytical discussions of the principles underlying the vital ethical problems of the modern age. Effort is made to aid the individual to construct a concrete scale of values and to attain a satisfactory philosophy of life.

This course is planned for students in the School of Nursing, but is open also to a limited number of third- and fourth-year students with similar professional interests and objectives to those of the nurses.

Mr. HARLEY.

Offered: 1st half-year.

PSYCHOLOGY1. INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY. [2 yr. hrs.]

These two courses in psychology cover much the same ground but are given with different emphasis for students with varying professional objectives.

(a) Lectures and analytical discussions on the fundamental concepts and principles of the general field of human psychology with special emphasis on the sociological and humanistic implications of the facts considered.

Mr. HARLEY, Mr. NEEDHAM, Mr. ——.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

(b) A course in scope equal to 1a but designed especially for students who plan to elect courses in education. Special reference is made to educational problems and practices.

Mr. NEEDHAM, Mr. FORBES.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

2. PSYCHOLOGY FOR NURSES. [1 yr. hr.]

The basic outline of this course is a survey of the principles of general psychology. More intensive discussion is directed to problems of special concern to the nurse and public health field-worker, such as child development, personality, mental hygiene, and individual abilities and aptitudes. Educational applications are considered.

* Students who expect to elect Education 1 should elect Psychology 1b instead of Psychology 1a.

For students in programs II and III in the School of Nursing.

Mr. NEEDHAM.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

3. GENETIC PSYCHOLOGY. PSYCHOLOGY OF CHILDHOOD AND ADOLESCENCE. [2 yr. hrs.]

Lectures, discussions, and classroom reports on the significant aspects of mental development in childhood and adolescence with particular reference to the practical demands of the broader child care and welfare movement. The educational and hygienic aspects of the subject are stressed. Extensive use is made of library resources, and direct observation of the behavior of individuals and groups is a requirement of the course.

Mr. HARLEY.

Prerequisite: Psychology 1a or 1b.

Enrollment: limited.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

4. THE PSYCHOLOGY OF PERSONALITY. [2 yr. hrs.]

An analytical study of the viewpoints and methods which have proved fruitful in the study of personality and its minor disturbances. The contributions of the various schools of psychological thought are studied, and considerable attention is paid to the quantitative studies of personality characteristics and factors by means of tests. The educational and hygienic aspects of the subjects are stressed.

Mr. HARLEY, Mr. CABOT, Mr. FORBES.

Prerequisite: Psychology 1a or 1b.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

5. EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY. [2 yr. hrs.]

Lectures and seminar meetings are supplemented by project work, case studies, and field trips. The subject matter of the course is the application of psychological principles and data to general educational problems. Special consideration is given to general psychological procedures which are available for investigating educational problems.

It is highly desirable that Education 1 be taken before Psychology 5. Also previous courses in Psychology 3 or 4 increase the benefit derived from Psychology 5.

Mr. NEEDHAM.

Prerequisite: Psychology 1a or 1b.

Offered: 2d half-year.

A. ELEMENTS OF PSYCHOLOGY.

A general survey of the aims, methods, and data of psychology with particular reference to the biological and social basis of behavior, motivation, the essentials of the learning process, individual differences, personality development, and mental hygiene. Collateral reading and a theme representing a study of at least one biography are required.

For students in program V in the School of Nursing.

Mr. CABOT.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

EDUCATION

1. INTRODUCTION TO EDUCATION.

[2 yr. hrs.

The course is planned to serve the needs and interests of both the prospective teacher and the citizen. It aims to enable the beginning teacher to understand and appreciate the school in which she is to work. It seeks to develop the citizen's understanding of the modern school, and willingness and ability for community leadership in educational activities. Topics covered include the function and aim of education, characteristics of the school system of the United States, the curriculum, the pupil, the educative process, and education as a profession.

It is highly desirable that Education 1 be taken in the third year, following Psychology 1b and before the special teaching courses offered by the different Schools.

Mrs. BUSH.

Prerequisite: Psychology 1a or Psychology 1b.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

2. PRINCIPLES OF EDUCATION.

[2 yr. hrs.

A study of world events and forces which have contributed to the shaping and directing of educational progress. Stress is placed upon a study of secondary education, its development, present organization, and the place of vocational education in that organization. Study of the textbook is supplemented by lectures, discussions, and collateral reading.

For students in the School of Physical Education.

Mr. GOOCH.

BUSINESS EDUCATION, see page 135.

HOME ECONOMICS EDUCATION, see page 141.

NURSING EDUCATION, see page 142.

TEACHING SECONDARY-SCHOOL ENGLISH, see page 103.

SCIENCE

1. SCIENCE SURVEY.

[4 yr. hrs.

The aims of the course are to acquaint the student with and help her to understand some of the more important principles and concepts of science, in particular those which are illustrated in everyday experience; to show how man's ideas in regard to the nature of the physical world have changed and progressed; and to enable the student to appreciate the careful and logical methods used by the scientist in drawing dependable conclusions. The instruction is carried on through lecture demonstrations including motion pictures, class discussions, and collateral reading.

Mr. HYATT, Mr. JONES.

BIOLOGY

1. GENERAL BIOLOGY.

[4 yr. hrs.

Lectures, recitations, and laboratory work. This course aims to acquaint the student with the fundamental phenomena of living things, and with general biological laws and theories. Wherever possible, biological principles are illustrated by the laboratory study of both plant and animal forms. The students are grouped according to their probable professional objectives.

Miss HOLT, Mrs. SARGENT, Miss WHITAKER, Miss ——.

2. GENERAL BIOLOGY.

[2 yr. hrs.

This is an introductory course in the biological sciences which lays the foundation for other courses in the department. It deals with the fundamental phenomena of living things and with general biological laws and theories, using plant and animal forms for illustration.

For students in the School of General Science.

Miss KELLY.

Offered: 1st half-year.

3. PHYSIOLOGY.

[2 yr. hrs.

Lectures, recitations, and laboratory work. This course introduces the subject of human physiology, dealing briefly with most of the phases, while amplifying the subject of nutrition. The central facts dwelt upon are those which bear on the digestion of food, its transformations and service in the body, and the balance of income and outgo.

Mrs. SARGENT, Miss ——.

Prerequisite: Biology 1.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

4. BACTERIOLOGY.

[2 yr. hrs.

These three courses in bacteriology cover much the same ground but are given with different emphasis for students in certain professional Schools of the College.

(a) Lectures, recitations, and laboratory work. The course is designed to give a general knowledge of bacteria, yeasts, and moulds, and their application to the affairs of daily life. Special attention is paid to the place of micro-organisms in nature and their relation to problems of food preparation and preservation, and to health. Modern methods are used in preparing cultures for the laboratory and in the study of bacteria in air, water, milk, and ice. The course includes some study of the microscopic methods of detecting pathogenic bacteria.

For students in the School of Home Economics.

Miss KELLY.

Prerequisite: Biology 1, and at least one year of college chemistry.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

(b) A course similar in scope to 4a, but planned for students in the School of General Science. Emphasis is placed upon technical procedures in the laboratory work. Each student carries out a small independent problem in the latter part of the course. The lectures deal with classification of fungi, bacterial physiology, the problem of filtrable viruses, and the practical applications of the science in medicine, agriculture, industry, etc.

For students in the School of General Science.

Mrs. WITTON.

Prerequisite: Biology 1 or 2, and at least one year of college chemistry.

Offered: 2d half-year.

(c) A course similar in scope to 4a, but planned for students in the School of Nursing. The first part of the course aims to give a foundation of general microbiology with emphasis upon such subjects as aseptic technique, disinfection, and modes of transfer. The second part of the course is concerned with the bacteriology of disease and with immunity. Subjects such as immunity and filtrable viruses, which cannot be studied in the laboratory, are emphasized in the lectures.

For students in the School of Nursing.

Mrs. WITTON.

Prerequisite: Biology 1, and at least one year of college chemistry.

Offered: 1st half-year.

5. COMPARATIVE ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY OF VERTEBRATES.

[4 yr. hrs.

The first part of this course deals with comparative anatomy of vertebrates, with emphasis upon the evolution of mammalian structures. The second half-year is devoted to a study of the general physiology of the vertebrates, with emphasis upon human physiology. The lecture material is supplemented by individual laboratory work by the student, consisting of studies of contractile and nerve tissue, circulation, metabolism, etc.

For students in the Schools of Home Economics and General Science.

Miss HOLT, Mr. RICHARDSON.

Prerequisites: Biology 3 and 4a, or 2 and 4b and Chemistry 1.

6. ANATOMY.

[2 yr. hrs.

A course planned for students in the School of Nursing. The course is devoted to the study of human anatomy and histology. Part of the lectures deal with human embryology.

For students in the School of Nursing.

Miss WATSON.

Prerequisites: Biology 1 or 2, and at least one year of college chemistry.

Offered: 2d half-year.

7. PHYSIOLOGY.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A course planned for students in the School of Nursing. It includes the fundamentals of human physiology and their clinical application. Subjects discussed in the lectures include the physiology of the central nervous system, excretory system, endocrine system, and metabolism. The laboratory work supplements the lectures, and includes individual work by the students on contractile and nerve tissues, circulation, metabolism, and sense organs.

For students in the School of Nursing.

Mr. RICHARDSON.

Prerequisite: Biology 6.

Offered: 1st half-year.

8, 9. PREVENTION OF COMMUNICABLE DISEASES AND PUBLIC HEALTH LABORATORY METHODS.

[4 yr. hrs.]

The discussion of sources and modes of infection, and the theories of infection and immunity, is followed by a detailed consideration of specific diseases and their prevention. This part of the course gives an appreciation of the modern health movement and a scientific knowledge of the preparation and uses of biologic products in the control of communicable diseases.

Another part of the course is intended for students who wish to become either assistants in the laboratories of boards of health or assistants to physicians. It includes the laboratory diagnosis of the more common infectious diseases, such as diphtheria, tuberculosis, pneumonia, typhoid fever, and malaria, and also the sanitary analysis of water and milk. The discussions deal with the actual problems in the work of boards of health.

Mr. HILLIARD, Miss BECKLER.

Prerequisite: Biology 4a or 4b, with a mark not lower than C.

Offered: As a year course, or Biology 8, described first, may be taken separately.

10. THE PREVENTION OF COMMUNICABLE DISEASES.

[2 yr. hrs.]

This course covers the same material as that described under Biology 8. It emphasizes those special problems in communicable disease prevention that are of most importance to students in Nursing.

For students in the School of Nursing.

Mr. HILLIARD.

Prerequisite: Biology 4a, or 4b, or 4c.

Offered: 1st half-year.

11. PUBLIC HEALTH SCIENCE.

[4 yr. hrs.]

The discussions concern the numerous problems affecting public health arising from modern conditions of living and working. Among the questions considered are: health organization and administration; water, milk, and other food supplies; ventilation; sewage and garbage disposal; vital statistics; maternal, infant and child health; health education and industrial hygiene. A health survey of some community, or a special field study, is included in the course.

Mr. HILLIARD.

Prerequisite: Biology 4a or 4b.

12. HOSPITAL LABORATORY METHODS. [4 yr. hrs.]

This course includes a study of the standard methods of blood and urine analysis (chemical and microscopical), Wassermann technique, the preparation of vaccines, and examination for intestinal parasites. It is intended to include the principal quantitative methods used in the clinical laboratories of hospitals and in medico-chemical investigation. The instruction in Wassermann technique is given at the State Laboratory under Dr. Hinton, the Director.

Mr. HARRIS, Mr. RICHARDSON, Mrs. MONTAGUE, Dr. HINTON.

Prerequisites: Biology 5 or 6, and Chemistry 5.

13. EMBRYOLOGY, HISTOLOGY, AND HISTOLOGICAL TECHNIQUE.

[4 yr. hrs.]

Lectures, recitations, and practical training in embryological and histological methods. The vertebrate embryology is based upon the development of the chick and of the pig. The histology deals with the principal animal tissues and stresses technical procedures.

Miss HOLT.

Prerequisite: Biology 3 or 5, with a mark not lower than C.

14. COMMUNITY HEALTH PROBLEMS. [1 yr. hr.]

The discussions include problems of public health organization and administration; the sanitation of water and milk and other supplies; waste disposal; vital statistics, and other pertinent matters relating to the health of the community.

For students in the School of Nursing.

Mr. HILLIARD.

Offered: 2d half-year.

15, 16. HUMAN PHYSIOLOGY AND PUBLIC HEALTH SCIENCE.

[3 yr. hrs.]

The first half of this course deals with the general principles of physiology, special emphasis being placed upon muscle-nerve, cardio-vascular function as it relates to problems of physical education.

The second half of the course deals with the principles of sanitary science and preventive medicine in an elementary way. The object is to survey the whole field of public health science with emphasis on its application in promoting health in the community and in schools.

For students in the School of Physical Education.

Mr. HILLIARD, Miss _____.
Offered: as a year course, or either half may be taken separately.

20. THESIS.

Fourth-year and graduate students whose previous records warrant it, may undertake original research under the advice of the members of the department.

Mr. HILLIARD, Miss HOLT, Miss BECKLER.

The hours and credits are specifically determined for each student.

BIOLOGY COLLOQUIUM.

Seniors specializing in biology are required to attend the department colloquium which meets once a week throughout the year.

A. ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY.

This course is planned for students in hospital training schools for nurses. Lectures, recitations, and demonstrations.

Miss WATSON.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

B. ELEMENTARY BACTERIOLOGY.

This course is planned for students in hospital training schools for nurses, to give a fundamental knowledge of bacteriology as related to nursing. The course also includes the consideration of problems of sanitary science, as related to infectious diseases. Lectures and laboratory practice.

Miss Young, Miss _____.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

CHEMISTRY1. INORGANIC CHEMISTRY.

[4 yr. hrs.]

A study of the fundamental principles and the general descriptive matter pertaining to inorganic chemistry.

For students who intend to pursue further the study of chemistry.

Mr. MARK, Mr. NEAL, Miss GRANARA, Mrs. ACHESON, Miss SOUTHGATE, Mrs. MARK, Mrs. PRATT.

2. GENERAL CHEMISTRY.

[4 yr. hrs.]

A course devoted to both inorganic and organic chemistry. About two-thirds of the time is spent upon the fundamental principles and the descriptive matter of inorganic chemistry and about one-third of the time upon an outline of organic chemistry.

For students who are to study chemistry for one year only.

Miss SOUTHGATE, Mrs. PRATT.

3. ORGANIC CHEMISTRY AND PHYSIOLOGICAL CHEMISTRY. [4 yr. hrs.]

A beginning course in organic chemistry presenting the typical compounds of carbon. Approximately half the course is devoted to material usually presented in elementary courses in physiological chemistry. Particular reference is made to the compounds found in plant and in animal tissues, and to the changes which food constituents undergo in cooking and in digestion.

Mrs. SARGENT, Mrs. WADSWORTH.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 1.

4. ORGANIC CHEMISTRY.

[4 yr. hrs.]

A general course in organic chemistry designed for students who are to take their major work in science.

Miss GRANARA.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 1.

5. QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A study of the fundamental methods of quantitative analysis designed to prepare students for more advanced courses in quantitative analysis.

Mr. HARRIS.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 1.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

6. QUANTITATIVE FOOD ANALYSIS.

[4 yr. hrs.]

A laboratory course in the fundamental methods of quantitative analysis and their application to food analysis, including the standard methods used in determining the composition of foods, and typical methods for detecting food adulteration.

Mr. HARRIS.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 3 or 4.

7. QUANTITATIVE METHODS.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A course designed to acquaint students with the importance, problems and limitations of quantitative work, through the study of some elementary methods of analysis, including some food analysis.

Mr. HARRIS.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 3.

Offered: 1st half-year.

8. ADVANCED QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A continuation of Chemistry 5 including specialized methods such as those of gas analysis.

Mr. HARRIS.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 5.

Offered: 2d half-year.

9. QUALITATIVE ANALYSIS.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A study of the semi-micro method of qualitative analysis, with emphasis on the underlying theories of solution.

Mr. NEAL.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 1.

Offered: 2d half-year.

10. ADVANCED ORGANIC CHEMISTRY. [2 or 4 yr. hrs.]

A course planned to follow Chemistry 4, with special emphasis placed on the chemistry of the aromatic compounds. The laboratory work includes typical preparations, and the quantitative determination of carbon, hydrogen, and nitrogen in organic compounds.

Mrs. SARGENT.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 4, with a mark not lower than C.

Offered: 1st half-year. May be continued 2d half-year.

11. THEORETICAL AND ADVANCED INORGANIC CHEMISTRY. [4 yr. hrs.]

Theoretical, often called physical, chemistry is presented from the kinetic, rather than from the thermodynamic point of view, and is given in connection with a review of descriptive inorganic chemistry and a study of the history of chemistry. The course also includes laboratory exercises in physical chemistry and reports on articles in current chemical periodicals.

Mr. MARK, Mr. HARRIS.

Elective for fourth-year students specializing in chemistry.

20. RESEARCH.

Fourth-year and graduate students whose previous records warrant it may undertake individual problems under the advice of the members of the department.

The hours and credits are specifically determined for each student.

A. ELEMENTARY CHEMISTRY.

A half-year course for students in hospital training schools for nurses. Special attention is given to the chemistry of the human body.

Mr. NEAL, Mrs. ACHESON.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

BIO-CHEMISTRY.

Much of the subject matter usually presented under this title is included in the course listed as Biology 12.

PHYSICS

1. GENERAL PHYSICS. [4 yr. hrs.]

The object of the course is to familiarize the student with the fundamental concepts and principles of physics, especially those which are illustrated in everyday life and those which are important in various kinds of scientific work. The students are grouped according to their probable professional objectives.

MEMBERS OF THE PHYSICS STAFF.

2. INTERMEDIATE GENERAL PHYSICS. [4 yr. hrs.]

The lectures and class work provide for a detailed and analytical study of the fundamental principles of physics for students of science. The laboratory work emphasizes the technique and precision involved in physical measurements and the interpretation of data through report writing.

Mr. PEARSON.

Prerequisites: Physics 1 and Mathematics 1.

3. ADVANCED PHYSICS. [2 or 4 yr. hrs.]

The department is prepared to give instruction to a small group of qualified students in the more advanced aspects of light, heat, and electricity and magnetism. The subject matter for each half-year is selected to meet best the needs of the group.

Mr. HYATT.

Prerequisites: Physics 2, Mathematics 2 (completed or taken at same time), and the approval of the department.

Offered: 1st half-year. May be continued 2d half-year.

4. INTRODUCTION TO MODERN PHYSICS. [2 yr. hrs.]

Topics include electromagnetic theory, radiation, nature and properties of ions and electrons, nature and origin of spectra, X-rays, atomic structure, radioactivity. Reports on articles in current physics periodicals.

Mr. HYATT.

Prerequisite: Physics 2, and the approval of the department.

Offered: 2d half-year.

5. ADVANCED LABORATORY PRACTICE. [2 or 4 yr. hrs.*]

The work is arranged to meet the needs of the individual student. Topics assigned include photography of diffraction effects and spectra, measurement of electronic charge, electron tube phenomena, photoelectricity, alternating current bridge measurements.

Mr. HYATT.

Prerequisite: Physics 2, and the approval of the department.

6. X-RAY TECHNOLOGY. [2 yr. hrs.]

The course aims to acquaint the student with a knowledge of the nature and practical applications of X-rays in the field of roentgenography. Lectures, demonstrations, laboratory work, and visits to X-ray laboratories.

Mr. STEARNS.

Prerequisite: Physics 2.

Offered: 1st half-year.

PHOTOGRAPHY, see Art 7, page 108.

MATHEMATICS

1. ALGEBRA, PLANE TRIGONOMETRY, AND ANALYTIC GEOMETRY.

[4 yr. hrs.]

A general course in mathematics designed to provide mathematical equipment for elementary courses in science and to serve as a foundation course for further study of mathematics. A few topics from the calculus are included in order to introduce its notation.

* The work and the amount of credit are varied to meet the needs of the individual student.

Mr. HEMENWAY.

Prerequisite: a knowledge of elementary algebra and plane geometry.

2. INTRODUCTION TO THE CALCULUS.

[4 yr. hrs.]

The fundamental principles of both differential and integral calculus are studied. The differential calculus is applied to problems involving maxima, minima, and rates. The integral calculus is applied to problems involving reversal of rates, computation of areas, volumes, and lengths of curves.

Mr. HEMENWAY.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 1.

3. CALCULUS AND ELEMENTARY DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS.

[2 or 4 yr. hrs.*]

This course includes such topics as complex numbers, the evaluation of integrals, double and triple integration, partial derivatives, and elementary differential equations. Applications from the sciences are studied, in addition to those of geometry.

Mr. HEMENWAY.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 2, and the approval of the department.

LIBRARY SCIENCE

1. INTRODUCTION TO LIBRARIANSHIP.

[1½ yr. hrs.]

An introduction to the fundamentals of library service in different kinds of libraries and to various social groups. The place of the library in the social order at various periods in history is surveyed, with emphasis upon the modern American library, its ideals, personnel, and services.

Mr. HENKLE.

Offered: 1st half-year.

2. LIBRARY ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A consideration of economic problems of library administration, such as sources of revenue, budgets, building, and equipment; also problems of personnel. Organization of the library as a whole and of departments within the library are considered in relation to the functions of the institution, and special attention is given to the administration of circulation and order departments. Examples of practical situations are drawn principally from public libraries.

For students in the general curriculum and optional program 3.

Mr. HENKLE.

Selective in optional programs 1 and 4.

Offered: 2d half-year.

3. LIBRARY ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION.

[2 yr. hrs.]

(a) Organization and administration of children's departments in public libraries.

* The work and the amount of credit are varied to meet the needs of the individual student.

(b) Organization and administration of young people's and school departments in public libraries and of school libraries. Students enrolling in this section of the course meet with students in section a for a portion of the course.

For students in optional program 2.

Miss BROTHERTON.

Offered: 2d half-year.

4. LIBRARY ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION. [3 yr. hrs.]

Organization and administration of special libraries, including departmental collections in public, reference, and university libraries. In addition to study of general problems of administration in various types of special libraries, emphasis is placed upon methods of selection, acquisition, organization, and care of special materials, such as newspapers, magazines, directories, services, maps, public documents, pictures, slides, pamphlets, and clippings. Classification problems in the organization of special collections are studied. Attention is also given to methods of rendering information and reference service to the library's clientele.

For students in optional program 4.

Miss LEONARD, Mr. RUBEY, Mr. HENKLE.

Elective for college graduates in optional program 1.

Offered: 2d half-year.

7. BIBLIOGRAPHY AND REFERENCE. [2 yr. hrs.]

Bibliographical sources of information about books, periodicals, public documents, and other printed materials, including trade and national bibliographies. Periodicals and documents are studied as forms, and certain groups of basic reference books are studied, such as encyclopedias, dictionaries, and sources of biographical information.

Mr. RUBEY.

Offered: 1st half-year.

8. BIBLIOGRAPHY AND REFERENCE. [2 yr. hrs.]

The important literature of the several fields of knowledge is presented in large units including bibliographies, reference books, indexes, catalogues, textbooks, periodicals, pamphlets, public documents, and other types of printed materials in each group of subjects. Reference methods are given special attention.

The consideration of subject literature is individualized for students in optional programs 3 and 4 on the basis of the major subject matter of their academic programs.

For students in the general curriculum and optional programs 1, 3, and 4.

Not open to students in program 2.

Mr. RUBEY.

Offered: 2d half-year.

9. BOOK SELECTION. [2 yr. hrs.]

A general course on the principles for the development of a book collection for different types of readers, in which the literary and sociological bases of selection are studied. Attention is given to the influence of such characteristics as age, education, sex, and occupation on the reading needs of the community.

MISS BROTHERTON, Miss EDGE.

Offered: 1st half-year.

10. READING GUIDANCE OF ADULTS. [2 yr. hrs.]

Selection of books to meet individual reader needs; a study of readers' advisory service. Special emphasis is placed upon study of the reading interests, habits, and abilities of adults, and upon the objectives, agencies, and methods of adult education.

The section of the course occupied by students in optional group 3 is conducted as a seminar with class projects and individual assignments.

For students in the general curriculum and optional programs 2 and 3.

Miss EDGE.

Elective in optional programs 1 and 4.

Offered: 2d half-year.

11. READING GUIDANCE OF BOYS AND GIRLS. [2 yr. hrs.]

A study of the reading interests, habits, and abilities of boys and girls, with books considered from the standpoint of presentation, value, use, and interest for different age groups. Opportunities are given for the study of sources, selection, and adaptation of stories, and for practice in oral presentation.

For students in optional program 2.

MISS BROTHERTON.

Offered: 2d half-year.

12. CATALOGUING. [1½ yr. hrs.]

A study of the functions of the catalogue, types of catalogues, principles of cataloguing, and the elementary rules of practice, including an introduction to subject headings. Opportunity is given for practice to give all students an understanding of the procedures involved in the construction and use of the catalogue.

Miss KAUFFMANN, Miss MURDOCH.

Offered: 1st half-year.

13. CATALOGUING. [1 or 2 yr. hrs.*]

Planned to meet the needs of students in optional program 1 for intensive practice and knowledge of special cataloguing problems, and to satisfy the general needs of students in other programs. The class is divided into two sections, running concurrently.

(a) Advanced study and intensive practice in general cataloguing. Also problems in cataloguing special materials, such as sheet music, maps, newspapers, periodicals, film books, phonograph records, and lantern slides.

* Cataloguing 13a, 2 year-hours; Cataloguing 13b, 1 year-hour.

Study of subject headings continued. Organization and administration of the Catalogue Department.

For students in optional program 1.

Miss KAUFFMANN.

Not open to students in other programs.

Offered: 2d half-year.

(b) Study of subject headings continued. Advanced study of cataloguing with added practice.

For students in the general curriculum and optional programs 2 and 4.

Miss KAUFFMANN, Miss MURDOCH.

Elective for students in optional program 3.

Offered: 2d half-year.

14. CLASSIFICATION.

[1 yr. hr.]

The principles and methods of classification are studied with special emphasis on book classification systems, particularly the Dewey Decimal System. Laboratory exercises are arranged to illustrate the principles studied.

Miss LEONARD.

Offered: 1st half-year.

15. CLASSIFICATION.

[1 yr. hr.]

Planned to meet the needs of students in optional program 1 for intensive study of the principal systems. Intensive practice in the Dewey Decimal and Library of Congress classification systems, with some attention to problems involved in classification of special forms and materials, such as newspapers, magazines, public documents, pictures, slides, etc.

For students in optional program 1.

Not open to students in other programs.

Miss LEONARD.

Offered: 2d half-year.

16. CARE OF BOOKS.

[1 yr. hr.]

Accessioning, mending, preparation for the bindery, inventory and shelving of books, periodicals, and other library materials.

For students in the general curriculum.

Miss MURDOCH.

Elective in optional programs.

Offered: 2d half-year.

20. HISTORY OF THE BOOK.

[1 yr. hr.]

The evolution of the book is traced from ancient times to the present.

Not open to students in the general curriculum.

Mr. HARASZTI.

Elective in optional programs 1, 3, and 4, and for students in the School of English.

Offered: 2d half-year.

21. INDEXING AND ABSTRACTING.

[1 yr. hr.]

Designed to meet the needs of students planning to enter special fields of library work, and for students in the School of English who are preparing for positions in publishing offices.

Not open to students in the general curriculum, or in optional programs 2 and 3.

Miss HENDERSON.

Elective in optional programs 1 and 4, and for students in the School of English.

Offered: 2d half-year.

22. USE OF BOOKS AND LIBRARIES.

[2 yr. hrs.]

This non-professional course gives instruction in the bibliographic features of books, essential for appreciation of book descriptions in library catalogues and bibliographies; and practice in the use of library catalogues. Methods of utilizing library facilities, and of finding material through indexes, handbooks, and other convenient ready reference aids are studied and practiced.

For students in the School of English.

Miss EDGE.

Offered: 1st half-year.

23. CHILDREN'S LITERATURE.

[1 yr. hr.]

A study of the reading interests of boys and girls, and discussion of the literary and practical value of various types of books.

For students not registered in the School of Library Science.

Miss BROTHERTON.

Offered: 1st half-year.

FIELD WORK.

Definite provision for observation and practical work is made

1. by assigning students to libraries for a fortnight in the spring of the fourth or fifth year;
2. by visits to libraries, or by other professional contacts; and
3. by assisting students in the four-year programs and college graduates to find opportunities for temporary experience in the summer before the year of professional study.

As the field work is coördinated with all the library science courses, and the necessary time contributed from the courses in varying proportions, no separate credit is allowed.

GENERAL TYPEWRITING: SECRETARIAL STUDIES B.

For a description of the course, see page 135.

SOCIAL WORK

Courses given at 18 Somerset Street are outlined in the special bulletin of the School of Social Work.

BUSINESS AND SECRETARIAL STUDIESBUSINESS*1. FUNDAMENTALS OF ACCOUNTING.*[4 yr. hrs.]

The course begins with a study of the balance sheet and the principles of double entry bookkeeping. Books of merchandising firms and of individuals are kept. The chief books of original entry and various ledgers as well as such topics as controlling accounts, accounting for various forms of investments—stocks, bonds, real estate—both as to capital and as to revenue, banking practice and procedure, practice in the computation of the Federal Income Tax as applied to individuals, interpretation and discussion of financial statements, and partnerships, are included.

One exercise each week is devoted to the mathematics of accounting. Interest, simple and compound, the various types of discounts, foreign exchange, the use of logarithms and their application in problems dealing with bond valuations, annuities, sinking funds, and depreciation, are studied.

Miss ENGLER, Miss SONDERGARD.

2. ELEMENTARY ACCOUNTING.[3 yr. hrs.]

An elementary course dealing with the principles of accounting procedure. It includes practice in the keeping and interpretation of records for mercantile concerns and individuals. Single proprietorships are studied in detail. Partnerships and corporations are also considered. The Federal Income Tax regulations as applied to individuals are discussed.

For students in program II.

Miss ENGLER.

3. ADVANCED ACCOUNTING.[2 yr. hrs.]

This course is based primarily on corporation accounting. Such topics as those dealing with the handling of stocks and bonds, the operation of the voucher system, installment sales, consignments, tangible and intangible assets, actuarial science, investments, inventories, profits, and surplus are studied.

Miss ENGLER.

Offered: 1st half-year.

4. ACCOUNTING PROBLEMS.[2 yr. hrs.]

This course consists of discussion and practice in solving practical problems. Some of the subjects considered are: analysis of financial statements; partnership and corporation problems; source and application of new funds; consolidated statements, liquidations, and mergers; joint ventures; branch and agency accounting; miscellaneous problems on such topics as adjustments for fire loss and insurance, reserves, surplus, and suspense items.

Miss ENGLER.

Offered: 2d half-year.

5. COST ACCOUNTING.

[2 yr. hrs.]

This course deals with the basic features of cost accounting as applied to industry of the present day. Cost records, control of and accounting for materials, supplies, and labor, manufacturing expenses, standard costs, estimated costs, by-product and joint costs, and cost reports for the management, are topics included in the work of this course.

Miss ENGLER.

Prerequisite: Business 3.

Offered: 2d half-year.

6. INSTITUTIONAL ACCOUNTS.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A course in the elements of bookkeeping and of business practice as applied to the accounts of lunchrooms, tea rooms, college dormitories, and institutions of a similar type, as well as accounting for individuals. Practice is given in the making of statements, the analysis of figures, and the designing of books of record appropriate for these types of institutions.

Miss ENGLER.

7. FINANCE.

[2 yr. hrs.]

Basic problems in the financing of business concerns. Investment analysis and a consideration of administrative and management problems involved in the field. Practical and applied problems of business finance are considered rather than the theoretical aspects of the subject.

Mr. WILSON.

Offered: 2d half-year.

8. PERSONNEL.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A survey of the factors determining and influencing employer-employee relationships in the individual business enterprise. Analysis of employment policies, and the adjustment of the worker to the position are considered. Special emphasis is placed upon the problems of training and supervising salespeople and office workers.

Mr. MASON.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

9. MARKETING.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A survey of marketing methods, consumer-retailer relations, and institutions. Problems which confront sales departments and executives are considered. Wholesaling, retailing, co-operative markets, elementary advertising, and other phases of marketing are studied.

Mr. HANSEN.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

10. BUSINESS ORGANIZATION.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A general outline of the principles underlying the organization and management of business including the discussion, from the standpoint of business, of such subjects as the following: the relation of business to banks and other financial institutions, forms of business enterprise, the financing of corporations, types of management, wage systems, functions of credit, problems of exchange, purchasing, selling, advertising.

Mr. WILSON.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

11. BUSINESS ORGANIZATION.

[1 yr. hr.]

A survey course covering, in general, the material given in Business 10. Primarily for students in program II.

Mr. WILSON.

Offered: 1st half-year.

12. ADVERTISING.

[2 yr. hrs.]

Lectures, discussions, and laboratory practice. The course presents the principles which underlie the various types of advertising. The topics studied include the functions of advertising, an analysis of products, a study of the channels of trade, the psychology of advertising, layout, the preparation of copy; the use of illustrations, headlines, and display type. Specific problems are dealt with in laboratory periods.

Mr. CHAMBERS.

Offered: 1st half-year.

13. ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A consideration of the elements of industry and commerce, and of the dependence of products and trade upon climate and location. The resources and trade productions of foreign countries are studied with particular reference to their effect upon the commerce of the United States. Special research on assigned topics.

Miss ENGLER.

Offered: 1st half-year.

14. BUSINESS LAW.

[2 yr. hrs.]

Discussions based on the study of legal principles and the application of these principles to selected cases. The primary aims of the course are to help the student acquire a knowledge of those fundamental legal principles which have high personal-use values, as well as of those principles which apply to ordinary business situations, and to develop the ability to read and analyze legal documents and texts. Contracts, sales, negotiable paper, common carriers, agency, insurance, property, partnership, and corporations are among the subjects considered.

Miss O'BRIEN.

15. BUSINESS LAW.

[1 yr. hr.]

A brief course covering, in general, the material given in Business 14. Primarily for students in program II.

Miss O'BRIEN.

Offered: 1st half-year.

16. OFFICE MANAGEMENT.

[1 yr. hr.]

A course designed to correlate the work done in the office machine laboratory with office organization and administration. The principles of office management are discussed and case problems studied.

Miss SWEENEY.

20. RESEARCH SEMINAR.

[½ yr. hr.]

To meet the special needs and interests of those students who anticipate the nature of the work which they will enter after graduation. Conferences are arranged with appropriate members of the staff and there is opportunity for individual research.

MEMBERS OF THE STAFF.

Offered: 2d half-year.

SECRETARIAL STUDIES

1. ELEMENTARY SHORTHAND-TYPEWRITING.

[4 yr. hrs.]

Shorthand. A thorough knowledge of the fundamental principles of Gregg shorthand, presented through direct method drills, may be gained in this course. Special emphasis is placed on reading, penmanship, and dictation practice. At the end of the year the students are able to take dictation in shorthand at from seventy to eighty words a minute, and to transcribe their notes readily. The course is conducted on the progressive plan. Students are enabled to advance in accordance with their special aptitudes and abilities.

Mrs. ADAMS, Miss WILKINSON, Mrs. BERGER, Mrs. DICKINSON.

Typewriting. Instruction in the use and care of the typewriter; exercises for the development of proper technique in the operation of all mechanical parts of the machine and for the complete mastery of the keyboard through the sense of touch; letter writing; copy from straight matter; tabulation; transcribing from shorthand notes.

Miss JACOBS, Miss FERGUSON, Mrs. QUINLAN

2. CONDENSED SHORTHAND-TYPEWRITING.

[8 yr. hrs.]

Shorthand. A special course designed to give in one year a thorough knowledge of the principles of Gregg shorthand and an ability to take dictation at a speed sufficient for most secretarial positions. The work includes presentation of the theory by direct method drills; systematic practice on a wide variety of dictation including business letters and other forms, and all types of straight matter; formation of a vocabulary broad and technical enough for any type of business office or any kind of secretarial work. Emphasis is placed on speed and at the end of the year the students are able to write at least one hundred words a minute in shorthand and transcribe their notes with facility. The course is conducted on the progressive plan. Students are enabled to advance in accordance with their special aptitudes and abilities.

Mrs. ADAMS, Mrs. DICKINSON, Miss NORTHRIDGE.

Typewriting. A special course designed to give in one year a thorough knowledge of the fundamental principles of typewriting and to enable the student to operate a typewriter accurately at a good speed. The work of the course, which is divided into three parts, includes (a) instruction in the use and care of the typewriter, rhythm drills, drills for accuracy, practice in letter writing, use of carbon paper, centering, writing on cards, simple tabulation; (b) practice in transcribing, making copies from rough draft, writing different kinds of documents, using various forms for letters; (c) practice in difficult tabulations and office methods. Special emphasis is placed upon the development of speed in typewriting and transcribing.

Mrs. COULTER, Mrs. QUINLAN.

3. SHORTHAND AND TYPEWRITING FOR GENERAL USE. [4 yr. hrs.]

An intensive one-year course in the Script system of writing, planned for those who wish to acquire a knowledge of shorthand for general and personal use. It includes (a) a thorough study of the principles; (b) dictation practice on general and business matter. At the end of the year the average student should be able to write shorthand at a speed at least double that of longhand, and be able to read and transcribe her notes with facility.

Mrs. DICKINSON, Mrs. QUINLAN.

Typewriting. A brief, intensive course planned to give, in the shortest possible time, a mastery of the keyboard by the sense of touch. The course includes practice in letter writing, card writing, simple tabulation, centering, and practice in transcription. Practice in speed and accuracy is secured through copy tests and speed drills.

Required of students in the School of English and open to such other students as secure permission from the Director of the School in which they are enrolled.

Mrs. QUINLAN.

4. ADVANCED SHORTHAND-TYPEWRITING. [4 yr. hrs.]

Shorthand. Systematic practice and drill in writing shorthand, with special emphasis on advanced phrasing principles. For the purpose of acquiring a broad general shorthand vocabulary, a wide variety of dictation is given: letters, speeches, and editorials.

Miss WILKINSON, Miss FERGUSON, Mrs. BERGER, Miss NORTHRIDGE.

Typewriting. Practice in the transcription of shorthand notes and in copying from printed matter for the attainment of speed and accuracy. Special attention is given to spelling, letter arrangement, and direct-to-the-machine dictation. Instruction is given in the set-up of business forms: tabulations, bills, rough drafts, telegrams, checks, and stencils.

Miss WILKINSON, Miss FERGUSON, Mrs. BERGER, Miss NORTHRIDGE.

Prerequisite: Secretarial Studies 1.

5. MEDICAL SHORTHAND-TYPEWRITING. [2 yr. hrs.]

This course is planned for those who desire to secure positions as secretaries with doctors or as record secretaries in hospitals. An effort is made to secure facility in the writing of a broad medical vocabulary. Letters, case histories, pathological reports, and clinical discussions of cases, etc., are given from dictation and are transcribed with proper set-up. Some instruction is given in medical filing, the keeping of suitable office records, preparation and proof-reading of medical manuscripts.

Mrs. WILKINSON, Miss SONDERGARD.

Prerequisite: Secretarial Studies 4 with a mark of B, or the approval of the instructor.

6. SPECIALIZED SHORTHAND-TYPEWRITING—LEGAL AND OTHER VOCABULARIES. [2 yr. hrs.]

This course is planned for those who desire to secure positions which demand greater speed than that required by the ordinary business office. In the shorthand period phrases, reporting short-cuts, and special vocabularies are emphasized. Practice is given in writing forms used in a wide variety of professional offices.

Mrs. ADAMS, Miss SONDERGARD.

Prerequisite: Secretarial Studies 4 with a mark of B, or the approval of the instructor.

7. SECRETARIAL METHODS—GENERAL. [½ or 1 yr. hr.]

This course is designed to give additional practice in shorthand and type-writing, to increase speed and accuracy, and to develop a broad general vocabulary. Students who attain a mark of A or B at the end of the first half-year do not continue in this course but are allowed one-half a year-hour credit, and are required to enter Business 20 or an approved elective.

Mrs. ADAMS, Miss FERGUSON, Miss JACOBS, Mrs. BERGER.

Prerequisite: Secretarial Studies 2 or 4.

8. SECRETARIAL METHODS—OFFICE PROCEDURES. [2 yr. hrs.]

This course is designed to develop secretarial efficiency with desirable attitudes and objectives. The student obtains practice in the varied duties required of a business secretary today. Special attention is given to detail, form, style, intricate tabulations, and various office methods.

Mrs. ADAMS, Miss FERGUSON, Miss JACOBS, Mrs. BERGER.

Prerequisite: Secretarial Studies 2 or 4.

9. OFFICE MACHINES. [2 yr. hrs.]

A laboratory course consisting of (1) a sufficient amount of actual practice on the common types of billing, bookkeeping, calculating, and duplicating machines to insure an understanding of their use in the office, (2) intensive practice on the Ediphone and Dictaphone, and (3) intensive work on the common methods of filing.

Miss SWEENEY, Miss SONDERGARD.

10. OFFICE MACHINES. [1 yr. hr.]

A course for the college graduate division giving enough practice on the common types of billing, calculating, duplicating, and transcribing machines to insure an understanding of their use in the business office. The principles of alphabetic filing and a discussion of the management of a filing department are included.

Lectures and class discussions correlate this laboratory practice with office organization and supervision.

For students in program II.

Miss SWEENEY.

Offered: 2d half-year.

A. GENERAL TYPEWRITING.

A brief, well-rounded course for students in any School, designed to give correct techniques; mastery of the keyboard; ability to set up letters in good style with carbon and envelopes; and some practice in simple tabulating, card, manuscript, and display work.

MEMBERS OF THE STAFF.

B. LIBRARY TYPEWRITING.

A brief intensive course for students in the School of Library Science. Mastery of the keyboard is followed by practice in typing special library forms.

MEMBERS OF THE STAFF.

Offered: 1st half-year for students in library program II. Repeated 2d half-year for students in library program I.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

1. METHODS OF TEACHING SECRETARIAL STUDIES. [2 yr. hrs.]

Lectures, discussions and application. This course includes (a) an examination of the content of courses in shorthand, typewriting, and office methods, including a comparison of the principal textbooks; (b) a detailed study of the methods employed in teaching these subjects; (c) observations and practice in teaching.

Mrs. ADAMS, Miss JACOBS, Miss SWEENEY.

Offered: 1st half-year.

2. TEACHING OF BUSINESS IN THE SECONDARY SCHOOL. [2 yr. hrs.]

Lectures, discussions and application. This course includes (a) a study of appropriate commercial curricula for junior and senior high schools, with emphasis on the discussion of vocational aspects of business training; (b) an examination of the content of courses in bookkeeping, penmanship, and arithmetic, including a comparison of the principal textbooks; (c) a detailed study of the methods employed in teaching these subjects.

Miss WILKINSON, Miss JACOBS, Miss ENGLER.

Offered: 2d half-year.

STORE SERVICE EDUCATION

Courses given at 19 Allston Street are outlined in the special bulletin of the Prince School of Store Service Education.

HOME ECONOMICS

CLOTHING

1. ELEMENTARY GARMENT MAKING. [2 yr. hrs.]

Instruction is provided in the use of the sewing machine; in the interpretation and use of commercial patterns; and in garment construction as applied to underwear, children's clothing and simple dresses. Choice of patterns and material are made with consideration of the needs and ability of the individual.

A placement test is given before spring registration to students of experience wishing exemption from Clothing 1.

Each student takes Clothing 2 for one half to complete the year.

Mrs. ABBOTT, Miss DAVIS.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

2. TEXTILES. [2 yr. hrs.]

This course includes the study of the important textile fibres; manufacturing processes as related to the appearance, use, and durability of a fabric; fabric analysis and consideration of the latest developments in consumer buying.

Mrs. ABBOTT.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

3. COSTUME DESIGNING AND ADVANCED DRESSMAKING. [4 yr. hrs.]

This course begins with the designing from plain drafted patterns of blouses, skirts, and dresses, and draping or modeling on the dress form. Special consideration is given to the study of lines, and the adaptation of designs to various types of figures. For this work all garments are made from inexpensive materials, the cost of which is covered by the fee for the course.

The course continues with garment construction, emphasis being placed on the making and pressing of garments of silk, and of woolen materials. The final problem in dressmaking is planned to show the student's ability to apply the principles gained from preceding clothing courses, namely, textiles, design, and garment construction. At least one problem of fitting in the alteration of a ready-to-wear garment is required of each student, the work to be done at any time during the course to meet the convenience of the student.

Some time is given to the consideration of millinery from the standpoints of selection, construction, renovation and remodeling.

Miss DAVIS.

Prerequisites: Clothing 1, 2 and Design 2.

4. COSTUME DESIGN AND DRESSMAKING. [4 yr. hrs.]

This course considers costume designing through the handling of materials, fashion illustrations, and the making of garments rather than through the technique of sketching. Time is spent in a study of line and color in relation to different types of individuals, the choice of garments suitable for various occasions such as school, afternoon, and evening wear, with appropriate accessories, and an application of these principles to members of the class. Silk and woolen garments are made from commercial patterns with such adaptations and modifications as are necessary to suit the individual.

Miss DAVIS.

Prerequisites: Clothing 1 and 2.

5. CONSUMER EDUCATION IN TEXTILES. [2 yr. hrs.]

The course includes the discussion of the elements involved in selection, and economic factors influencing prices of garments and textile fabrics for clothing and house furnishing. Budgets and accounts in relation to clothing are considered.

Mrs. ABBOTT.

Prerequisite: Clothing 2.

Offered: 2d half-year.

6. PROBLEMS IN TEXTILE ANALYSIS.

An advanced course. Problems are selected in consideration of the interests and needs of each student.

Mrs. ABBOTT.

Elective for fourth-year students with the approval of the instructor.

The hours and credits are specifically determined for each student.

DESIGN

1. PRINCIPLES OF DESIGN. [2 yr. hrs.]

A course in the appreciation of art as applied to systematic arrangements of order and beauty in the fundamentals of design. Lectures, readings, lantern slides, and collections of fine and applied art materials furnish illustrations.

Miss GARDNER.

Elective for second- and third-year students.

Offered: 1st half-year.

2. PRINCIPLES OF COSTUME DESIGN. [4 yr. hrs.]

A study of the fundamental art principles as related to costume design. The course includes historic costume with its application to modern dress, and a survey of line and color with reference to figures and types. Laboratory time is devoted to the practical application of the material.

Miss GARDNER.

3. INTERIOR DECORATION. [4 yr. hrs.]

This course includes a survey of the various periods of furniture, fabrics, wall decoration, and accessories. Case problems are given in the selection of interior ensembles for rooms, apartments, and American homes of moderate income, with special attention to design principles, color harmonies, and budget planning. Work in the course is supplemented by lantern slides, photographs, museum study, and trips to furniture factories and stores.

Miss GARDNER.

Prerequisite: Design 2.

4. HISTORIC ORNAMENT.

[2 yr. hrs.]

A survey of decorative design in the art periods with application to practical forms.

Miss GARDNER.

Offered: 2d half-year.

FOODS

1. FOOD PREPARATION AND MARKETING.

[4 yr. hrs.]

Lectures, recitations, and practice. This course presents the principles underlying the preparation of different types of food. Marketing problems are discussed by special lecturers. The course provides practice in cooking in family quantities. Special divisions are arranged for students who have had cooking in high school and for students specializing in clothing and design.

Miss Dow, Miss HORD, Miss MACGREGORY, Miss JOHNSON, Miss FISHER.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 1 and Biology 3 and 4a (completed or taken at same time).

2. MEAL SERVICE.

[2 yr. hrs.]

This course consists of the preparation of luncheons for paying faculty guests. It includes conferences, reading, and some laboratory exercises which review and extend the principles of food preparation.

Miss FISHER, Miss HORD.

Prerequisite: Foods 1.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

3. EXPERIMENTAL COOKERY.

[1 yr. hr.]

An advanced course offered for students who expect to take approved hospital training courses.

Miss Dow.

Prerequisites: Foods 1 and 2.

Offered: 2d half-year.

4. ELEMENTARY FOOD PREPARATION.

[1 yr. hr.]

A laboratory course in elementary food preparation, to be taken by students in the School of Nursing who have not had equivalent work.

Miss JOHNSON.

Offered: 2d half-year.

A. ELEMENTARY FOOD PREPARATION.

An elementary course in cookery for pupil nurses in program V.

Miss HORD.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

NUTRITION1. PRINCIPLES OF NUTRITION.

[2 yr. hrs.]

This course presents the application of the fundamental principles of human nutrition under varying physiological and economic conditions.

Miss BLOOD, Miss HORD.

Prerequisites: Biology 3, Chemistry 3, and Foods 1.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

2. COMMUNITY NUTRITION.

[2 yr. hrs.]

This course aims to give an insight into the nutrition problems in social service, and also to give experience in the application of the principles of nutrition through clinic work and family visiting.

Miss WHITE.

Prerequisite: Nutrition 1.

Students taking this course are expected to elect Nutrition 3 and Sociology 3.

Enrollment: thirteen students.

3. NUTRITION SEMINAR.

[1 yr. hr.]

Reports on the current literature of nutrition and related sciences with emphasis on diet in disease.

Miss BLOOD with the assistance of dietitians from the hospitals.

Prerequisite: Nutrition 1.

Offered: 1st half-year.

4. ELEMENTARY PRINCIPLES OF NUTRITION.

[1 yr. hr.*]

These three courses in nutrition cover much the same ground but are given with different emphasis for students with varying professional objectives.

(a) A brief non-technical treatment of the fundamental principles of human nutrition, with special application to the problems of the nurse.

For students in the School of Nursing.

Miss HORD.

Prerequisite: Some preparation in the basic sciences.

Offered: 2d half-year.

(b)* A course similar in scope to 4a but planned for public health nurses.

Special emphasis on planning family food budgets to meet nutritional needs.

For students in the School of Nursing.

Miss BLOOD.

Offered: September–November. Repeated February–March.

(c) A course similar in scope to 4a and 4b but with special application to the problems of the student in physical education.

For students in the School of Physical Education.

Mrs. BURKE.

Prerequisite: Some preparation in the basic sciences.

Offered: 2d half-year.

* Credit of $\frac{1}{2}$ year hour is allowed for Nutrition 4b.

5. CURRENT PROBLEMS IN NUTRITION. [½ yr. hr.]

A seminar on current literature concerning nutrition for students in the fifth year of the nursing program.

For students in the School of Nursing.

Miss BLOOD.

Prerequisite: Satisfactory preparation in chemistry, physiology and nutrition.

Offered: March-May.

A. ELEMENTARY PRINCIPLES OF NUTRITION.

A brief non-technical treatment of the fundamental principles of human nutrition for pupil nurses.

Miss HORD.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

MANAGEMENT

1. HOME MANAGEMENT. [2 yr. hrs.]

Consideration of the household as a business and discussion of the relation of the various members of the household to the enterprise of home making.

This course is advised for all students who consider entering the teaching profession.

Miss Dow.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

2. HOME MANAGEMENT HOUSE. [2 yr. hrs.]

This course is based on residence in Pilgrim House, with responsibility for planning and execution of all the work, including the marketing and bookkeeping. It includes conferences, reading, and some laboratory exercises which review and extend the principles of food preparation.

Miss MACGREGORY.

Prerequisite: Foods 1.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

3. INSTITUTIONAL MANAGEMENT. [4 yr. hrs.]

This course aims to give the student an insight into the problems of institutional administration with special emphasis on all aspects of scientific management. It is a composite course representing one-fourth of a senior student's effort. The lectures are divided approximately into thirds devoted to organization and administration, food and equipment buying, and personnel management respectively. The lectures include the application of these principles to institution menus with practice in menu planning for all types of food departments found in large unit group living.

(a) Supervised field work in the various food and administrative departments of the Women's Educational and Industrial Union, coöperating suburban school cafeterias, and the Simmons College lunchroom and dormitories, together with conferences and reports on the field work.

(b) Quantity cookery, standardization of recipes and the use of institution equipment and machines in the Simmons College lunchroom with discussion periods to review principles and analyze procedures. Experience in quantity food preparation is also provided on the field work assignments in the restaurant and wholesale production departments of the Women's Educational and Industrial Union and the Simmons dormitories.

(c) Numerous related trips to restaurants, cafeterias, tea rooms, hotel catering and house departments, private clubs, school cafeterias, college dining halls and dormitories, to acquire facility in observing equipment, layout, food production, and service, and to develop critical judgment.

Students are required to eat in representative restaurants from time to time to develop judgment and analytical ability. Twenty-five dollars should be allowed to cover this item and the professional materials required for this course.

Mrs. DODGE, Miss BOWERS, Mrs. THOMASIAN.

Prerequisites: Nutrition 1, Foods 1, Foods 2 or Management 2.

Students taking this course are expected to elect Business 6.

4. HOUSING.

[2 yr. hrs.]

The course presents in illustrated lectures city and town planning with emphasis on the aspects which influence housing; house-planning applied to small detached houses, row houses, and apartment houses of the modern low-cost developments; a comparison of traditional and new methods and materials in house building; recent government activity in housing.

One period a week is devoted to simple problems in measuring existing rooms and in making scale drawings to give practice in the reading of architectural plans.

Mrs. O'CONNOR.

Offered: 1st half-year.

HOME ECONOMICS EDUCATION

1. METHODS OF TEACHING HOME ECONOMICS.

[4 yr. hrs.]

This course gives opportunity for the study of progressive methods and for the application of principles of teaching through discussion of problems arising in connection with observation and student teaching in public schools.

Miss JOHNSON.

Elective for fourth-year students.

2. THE TECHNIQUE OF DEMONSTRATION.

[1 yr. hr.]

A course devoted to a consideration of the special problems involved in demonstrating and speaking to public audiences on food topics.

Miss DOW.

Elective for fourth-year students.

Enrollment: sixteen students each half-year.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

NURSINGNURSING EDUCATION*1. COMPARATIVE NURSING PRACTICE.

[1 yr. hr.]

This course in the teaching of the nursing arts includes an analysis of basic procedures with emphasis on underlying scientific principles. Some practice is given in evaluating typical procedures and in comparing methods of teaching them.

Miss NORCROSS.

Offered: 1st half-year.

2, 3. WARD MANAGEMENT AND WARD TEACHING.

[2 yr. hrs.]

The first half of this course is arranged for head nurses and supervisors who are concerned directly with the practical management of hospital wards. It aims to acquaint the student with the general plan of hospital organization, the head nurse's relation to the various departments of the hospital, the organization of the ward itself, the care of its equipment, and the management and supervision of ward personnel.

The second half-year is planned for students who have already completed the first part of the course, in ward management. The general educational program of the school of nursing is discussed in order to show the place of the head nurse in that program. Special emphasis is placed on the opportunities for teaching within the ward, and the relationships between the head nurse and the student nurse assigned to her department.

Miss WOOD.

Offered: as a year course, or either half may be taken separately.

4. PROFESSIONAL ADJUSTMENTS.

[1 yr. hr.]

A course for students in the fifth year of the five-year nursing program. Its aim is to give the student nurse an understanding and appreciation of the professional responsibilities and opportunities of the graduate nurse; to acquaint her with some of the problems that await her upon graduation; and to assist her in making plans for her future professional activities.

Miss WOOD.

Offered: March-May.

5. PRINCIPLES OF EDUCATION AND METHODS OF TEACHING.[$\frac{1}{2}$ yr. hr.]

An introductory course in education aimed to give the nurse an educational viewpoint toward her work, whether she contemplates doing institutional, public health, or private duty nursing.

For seniors in program I.

Mrs. MORRIS.

Offered: March-May.

6. PRINCIPLES OF EDUCATION AND METHODS OF TEACHING. [1 yr. hr.
A study of fundamental processes in learning and teaching, and special phases of teaching in the field of nursing.

Mrs. MORRIS.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

1. PRINCIPLES OF PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING. [2 yr. hrs.

This course deals with the development, principles, and practice of public health nursing, with emphasis upon its social and preventive aspects. A number of visits are made to health and social agencies. The required field work is taken at the same time unless special arrangements are made with the department.

Miss STIMSON, and special lecturers.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

2. PROBLEMS OF PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING. [3½ yr. hrs.

This course covers those phases of public health nursing which, because of current practice or specific need, require adaptations in organization or administration. The lectures and discussion cover units of work which may be credited separately if comparable courses have been completed during the summer session or in other colleges.

(a) Public Health Nursing in Schools. This unit deals with the school health program as a part of a community health program. Emphasis is placed upon the educational aspects of school health procedures and upon the interpretation of the program and teaching of health both to individuals and to groups.

(b) Mental and Social Hygiene. This unit deals with the function and objectives of the public health nurse in the fields of mental health and social hygiene. These units of study each include approximately ten hours of lecture and class discussion.

(c) Organization and Administrative Problems. This unit deals with the special problems of program planning and community organization in rural areas in both official and non-official agencies. Special consideration is given to the methods used in maternity nursing. Approximately fifteen hours are given to a consideration of the responsibility of the nurse for developing a balanced program, and to the methods used by supervisors to improve public health nursing practice.

Miss STIMSON, Miss HITCHCOCK, Mrs. MORRIS, and special lecturers.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

3. FAMILY SOCIAL WORK. [1 yr. hr.

This course is planned to give the public health nurse an appreciation of the aims and functions of typical welfare agencies. Lectures and discussions are also designed to show how social problems may be met in communities with limited resources.

Miss FLETCHER.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

4. PREVENTIVE MEDICINE AND PUBLIC HEALTH ORGANIZATION.

[$1\frac{1}{2}$ yr. hrs.]

Lectures and discussions of problems of community hygiene, and the organization of federal, state, and local health services.

Mr. HILLIARD, Dr. DIEZ, and special lecturers.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

5. PUBLIC HEALTH ACTIVITIES.

[1 yr. hr.]

A general survey of public health activities with special emphasis on the relation of community health programs to nursing education and the care of the sick in hospitals. Open to graduate nurses who are not taking regular courses in public health nursing.

Mrs. MORRIS.

Offered: 1st half-year.

6. RURAL PROBLEMS.

[$\frac{1}{2}$ yr. hr.]

Studies of country life and labor, including economic, social, health, recreation, and education problems. Focused primarily, but not solely, on American needs and on hopeful ways in which they are being met. Outstanding agencies and individuals at work for rural betterment identified, and their aims and results appraised. Earnest quest for a sensible philosophy of rural life, and for a sound program of rural progress.

Mr. STIMSON, and special lecturers.

Offered: October–December. Repeated February–April.

7. NURSING AND HEALTH SERVICE IN THE FAMILY.

[1 yr. hr.]

This course aims to give an understanding of the public health nurse's approach to the family as made in response to the need of an individual. Consideration is given to home environment, resources, and family and community relationships.

Miss HITCHCOCK.

Offered: February–March.

FIELD WORK

1. PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING FIELD WORK.

[3 yr. hrs.]

About thirty hours weekly of supervised practice in family health work, divided into three periods in which two months are spent in a generalized public health nursing program and one month in child hygiene and tuberculosis work. One month may be spent in family case work, or for a limited number of students, in rural or school nursing.

Offered: 1st half-year. Repeated 2d half-year.

Hours to be arranged, approximately 500.

2. HEAD NURSING FIELD WORK.

[3 yr. hrs.]

Head nursing practice under supervision in one of the hospitals affiliated with the College. Two weeks of observation are given in the fall before the beginning of classes, and the remainder is given during the second half-year.

Hours to be arranged, approximately 400.

3. FIELD EXPERIENCE FOR STUDENT NURSES.

[2 yr. hrs.]

This experience is planned for fifth-year students in the five-year nursing program. For two months there are about thirty hours a week of generalized public health nursing with the Community Health Association. During the last two months of the half-year excursions are conducted to various health agencies in order that the student may have some knowledge of the remedial and educational programs that are organized to meet existing health problems. The excursions are supplemented each week by conferences and discussions.

Offered: 2d half-year.

Hours to be arranged.

SUMMER COURSES S 1. PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE OF NURSING.

[3 yr. hrs.]

This course considers the elementary nursing techniques with a discussion of the general principles underlying the practice of nursing. Attention is also given to the social aspects of nursing in order that the student's concept of nursing may be such as to give her a sympathetic attitude toward the patient and an understanding of his health problems. The instruction is supplemented by classroom practice and by supervised practice in the hospital wards. The course also includes demonstrations and practice in bandaging and the fundamentals of hospital housekeeping that are the concern of the nurse.

Classes are conducted daily in a well equipped hospital classroom during the six weeks of the summer session following the first year. Ward practice is instituted as soon as the student has demonstrated a reasonable degree of proficiency in her classroom practice.

Miss SINCLAIR, and assistants.

S 2. PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE OF NURSING.

[3 yr. hrs.]

A continuation of Nursing S 1, given during the summer session following the second year. The student, after a general review of simple nursing procedures, is instructed in the more complicated or advanced nursing techniques. The plan of the earlier course in nursing is continued by following daily classroom practice and instruction with ward practice as soon as the student has developed a reasonable amount of skill. Particular emphasis is placed on the nurse's approach to the patient and the problems of personality that must be understood to insure good nursing. The course also aims to present to the student the use of massage as a therapeutic agent, with practice in those techniques which may be delegated to the nurse in her care of the patient.

Miss SPRINGER, and assistants.

* For information concerning summer courses for graduate nurses, see special summer bulletin.

S 3. HISTORY OF NURSING.

[*]

The object of this course is to give the student, through lectures, reading, reports, and discussion, an appreciation of the historical events that have influenced the development of nursing as a profession, and a knowledge of those great leaders in the profession who have contributed to the establishment of nursing traditions and ideals.

Miss WHITE.

S 4. ELEMENTARY MATERIA MEDICA.

The student is taught the preparation of the various solutions used in the nursing techniques employed on the wards. Special attention is given to the general classification of drugs and the various methods of their preparation and administration. This course is preliminary to the more advanced course in materia medica which the student will take during her first year of hospital instruction.

Miss JOHNSON.

* Given in combination with Nursing S 1.

† Given in combination with Nursing S 2.
